SEATO Parley Ends with Rap At Neutralists

Only Slight Boost In Economic Aid Pledged to Asians

MANILA (AP)—The SEATO Council ended its fourth annual conference today with a swipe at neutralist nations which won't recognize the dangers of communism and a promise of only slightly more economic aid to help the Asian pact members develop their resources.

The foreign ministers of the eight nations outlined the results of their meeting in a 1,200-word communique which pinpointed "the insidious character" of Communist subversion as Southeast Asia's "most substantial current menace."

Without naming them, the council warned "some non-Communist governments" against "failing to distinguish between the aims and ideals of the free world and the purposes of international communism." The communique said because of "the insidious character of Communist subversions, there was particular danger arising" from these governments.

The communique announced no big new program of economic aid to meet Pakistani charges that such neutral nations as India were getting more help than free world allies.

* * *

INSTEAD, the Council of Ministers pointed out that SEATO's three Asian members (Pakistan, Thailand and the Philippines) had gotten more than $700 million in economic aid in the past year, principally from the U.S.

The communique said the programs of extensive bilateral and other economic arrangements between the SEATO countries would continue. In addition, it cited U.S. Secretary of State Dulles' announcement that the United States would put up $2 million for a program of vocational and on-the-job training for Asian members, and the Australian grant of $2,230,000 to the Asian members.

The communique also called attention to Dulles' statement that the major portion of U.S. economic aid now is going to Asia.

Dulles himself made a personal effort to soothe Pakistan. After the final conference session, he drove off with Commerce Minister N. M. A. Qizilbash, the Pakistani delegate, for a private talk.

The communique carefully avoided any mention of the shooting war in Indonesia, in line with SEATO's policy of not intervening in affairs of nonmembers.

Vanguard Sidelined Anew By Troubles

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Navy's Project Vanguard, grounded by repeated frustrations apparently floundered in serious difficulty today.

None of the officials in charge would comment. The Navy has lowered a strict curtain of secrecy over its space research program, dogged by misfortune.

There were definite indications a Vanguard satellite launching might be days or even weeks away.

Meanwhile, the rival Army Jupiter-C program, despite troubles of its own, pushed to the fore.

Secretary of the Army Wilber Brucker said in Washington that launching of a third Explorer satellite has been authorized.

Wednesday, the Navy called off its third attempt in a week to launch the Vanguard three-stage rocket with a grapefruit-size satellite in its nose.

It blamed technical difficulties which slowed the test beyond the time that liquid oxygen could be retained in the rocket without freezing the valves and other sensitive fittings.

Experts said it may prove that so much work is required to get the shopworn Vanguard back into condition that a launching may be out of prospect for weeks.

The Army launched its first Explorer satellite successfully Jan. 31, using the four-stage Jupiter-C. Its second launching attempt, March 5, was unsuccessful.

Democrats Prod For Decision on Income Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional Democrats prodded the Eisenhower administration today for an early decision on possible antirecession tax cuts.

The administration, meanwhile, waited to assess the results of stepped-up spending programs it has ordered and recommended before deciding whether a tax cut is needed to spur production and create jobs.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and his assistant, Sen. Mansfield of Montana, urged action to make it clear whether there are going to be tax reductions and what kind.

Johnson told the Senate that "we will face up — I hope very quickly — to the question of tax cuts." Saying that he hasn't reached any firm conclusion himself, he added: "But I believe we owe it to our fellow Americans to end the suspense at the earliest possible moment."

* * *

MANSFIELD said he is glad Secretary of the Treasury Anderson has announced he will confer with leaders of both parties on the tax question.

"I hope these conferences are held quickly and the results announced immediately," he said. "The people ought to be told where they stand."

Anderson announced that the administration will delay any tax decision until "the future course of the economy has been clarified." That left up in the air the timing for any possible tax cut.

Chairman Byrd (D-Va) of the Senate Finance Committee, who opposes reductions now, said any tax cut is likely to cost the Treasury up to $7 billion in revenue and bring on a $15 billion deficit.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) was reported to feel that Congress ought to make its objective clear in the tax field before recess April 3.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) and Sen. Anderson (D-NM) have proposed $5 billion reductions in personal and business taxes as amendments to a House-passed bill dealing with another matter. Johnson appeared confident he could block any such backdoor approach to tax action. The Constitution says tax legislation must originate in the House.

* * *

THE SENATE passed and sent to the House a $1.8 billion housing bill which its sponsors say could increase by 200,000 the number of new homes planned this year and provide jobs for more than 500,000 workers in construction and related industries.

Many Democratic senators expressed the hope that the House would knock out of the bill its most disputed feature — authority for Eisenhower to raise the interest rate on GI home mortgages from 4½ to 4¾ per cent.

The House last year refused to go along with the President's recommendation that this rate be boosted to 5 per cent to attract more private funds into the veterans housing market.

On the controversial interest rate issue, the Senate divided evenly in two dramatic tie votes. Vice President Nixon broke the second one to settle the issue in favor of the administration.

In addition to permitting the interest boost on GI loans, the bill would make large amounts of new government funds available to buy mortgages for which no private lenders can be found. It would extend the VA guarantee and direct home loan programs for two years for World War II veterans and lower the down payment on FHA mortgages.

Two-Inch Snowfall Surprises Area

Yesterday's delightful day proved to be misleading for those who were anticipating an early spring.

All went out the window this morning at about 10:30 when snow started falling as if it were December or January.

To make matters worse the white stuff immediately started sticking. At 1 p. m. the ground here was covered with a good two inches.

The weatherman today didn't prove to be much of a help. Indications are that at least four inches will fall here.

The fast falling flakes made local streets and highways extremely slippery. Circleville Police and the sheriff's department warned motorists to drive with care.

Local business establishments made a hurried search for almost forgotten snow shovels. Most pedistrians appeared wearing boots and hoods.

The weatherman says it will be colder tonight with a low expected around 26-33. The high tomorrow probably will be in the 40's.

A belt of snow already has unrolled eastward in the Ohio Valley. It deposited three inches on Louisville, Ky., in an hour this morning, with a total of seven inches expected before the storm tapers off.

Rain, wind and snowstorms lashed wide areas of the country today, with Southern and Western sections hit hardest.

A belt of rain or snow extended from Florida west, northwestward through the central Rockies.

Heavy snow fell from northern Arkansas and southwestern Missouri westward to the Continental Divide. Falls in some parts of Missouri measured 6 inches, with 4 to 5 inches general in Kansas and Oklahoma.

The heaviest snowfall since 1906 blanketed El Paso, on the Texas-Mexico border, with a covering of 7½ inches on the usually balmy Texas city.

A violent windstorm hit the Miami area during the night. Heaviest damage was at Pompano Beach, 30 miles north of Miami, where four persons were injured.

Arms Contractors Urge Cut Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's defense contractors were told today the Air Force expects them to concentrate on reducing overhead costs and turning out the most reliable weapons systems possible.

Lt. Gen. William F. McKee said "the price of air superiority in our present situation is high.

"We must not add to that cost the crushing overhead of inefficiency, lack of creative forward vision, or self-interest."

McKee is vice commander of the Air Materiel Command at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton.

Ohio Girl, 17, Testifies in Vice Hearing

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A first-person story of prostitution and pandering operations in Cincinnati and northern Kentucky night spots was spread on Federal Court records today, told by a 17-year-old Ohio girl appearing as a government witness against two Cleveland men.

The two defendants, each charged in two counts of transporting women across state lines for immoral purposes, are David R. Timms, 24, alias Russell Pendleton and Arthur L. Englander, 28, alias Arthur Evans.

Also involved are two other girls, one 15 and the other 18. The 17-year - old listed Williamsport (Morrow County) as her former home.

After operations were set up in a Cincinnati apartment, the witness said, "Timms discussed tricks of the trade with me. He said none of the girls should take less than $20 and that the man who worked with her would always get half."

On Feb. 12, she continued, they went to nearby Newport, Ky., "to show off the 15-year-old girl to the bartenders so they could solicit business for that night."

On one occasion, she recounted, she was run out of a Cincinnati cafe when "I tried a con game on a young man who turned out to be a relative of a Cincinnati policeman . . . things got too hot for us and we moved our operations to Newport."

Henry Cook, district attorney, told a jury hearing the case that Timms and Englander instructed the 15-year old girl how to use makeup and how to wear tight-fitting clothing before they took her on a tour of night spots to solicit business.

Stuard Wegener, defense attorney, contended his clients had come from Cleveland "for a vacation and were taken in" by the girls.

Dulles Warned Tunisia May Abandon West

Bourguiba Declares U.S. Diplomat Holds Key in French Fuss

TUNIS (AP) — Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba today called on Secretary of State Dulles to support his country by next Thursday in her dispute with France or lose Tunisia's allegiance to the West.

Bourguiba canceled public celebrations of the second anniversary of independence from France and warned that Tunisia might have to fight France again.

In his weekly radio speech Bourguiba said: "We are not truly free. It is not excluded that we will take up fight again."

March 20, the independence anniversary, "is the fatal date," he continued. "I hope that between now and then our misunderstandings with the free world will be dissipated."

"We are at the crossroads," he declared.

"Dulles holds the key to the problem. He must decide.

* * *

"HIS DECISION will not hurt France, for to be a supporter of justice is to save France from her own weaknesses."

Bourguiba, since the French bombing of the Tunisian village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef on Feb. 8, has been demanding that France will pull out the 22,000 troops she has had in the country under the 1956 independence agreement. A. U. S.-British good offices team has been trying to bring the two governments together.

U.S. To Launch 25 Satellites 'Soon'

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The United States soon will have 25 satellites whirling around in outer space, says Dr. T. J. Killian, deputy director and chief scientist of the Office of Naval Research.

While satellites have no value as launching platforms, Killian said, he thinks they are of military value for surveillance and communications.

"They can serve as relay points for communications," he said. "And when we have 25 satellites in the air, as we soon will, they could even serve as double relay points."

Leopold Leaves Prison Today After 33½ Years as Convict

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — Nathan Leopold, who served 33½ years in prison for a bobbled effort to commit a perfect murder, walked to freedom today determined to become a perfect example of prison rehabilitation.

After a secret meeting with relatives in Chicago, he plans to fly to Puerto Rico for a $10-a-month job as a laboratory worker in a mission hospital.

The Illinois Parole and Pardon Board approved his request to take the job, thus authorizing his release on parole for five years.

In 1924, Leopold, son of a wealthy Chicago family, and Richard Loeb, his fellow University of Chicago student, committed what they thought was the "perfect crime"—the murder of a neighbor boy, Bobby Franks, 14.

With terrifying coldness they worked out the details of their crime. They abducted Bobby near a playground, beat him to death with a heavy chisel and stuffed his body in a culvert.

On Sept. 11, 1924, they went to prison for life on the charge of murder and 99 years for kidnaping. Loeb died in 1936 in a fight with another inmate.

Leopold, now 53, was what prison officials termed a "model prisoner." He served as a guinea pig in wartime malaria experiments, established a correspondence school for convicts, reorganized the prison library and worked in the prison hospital.

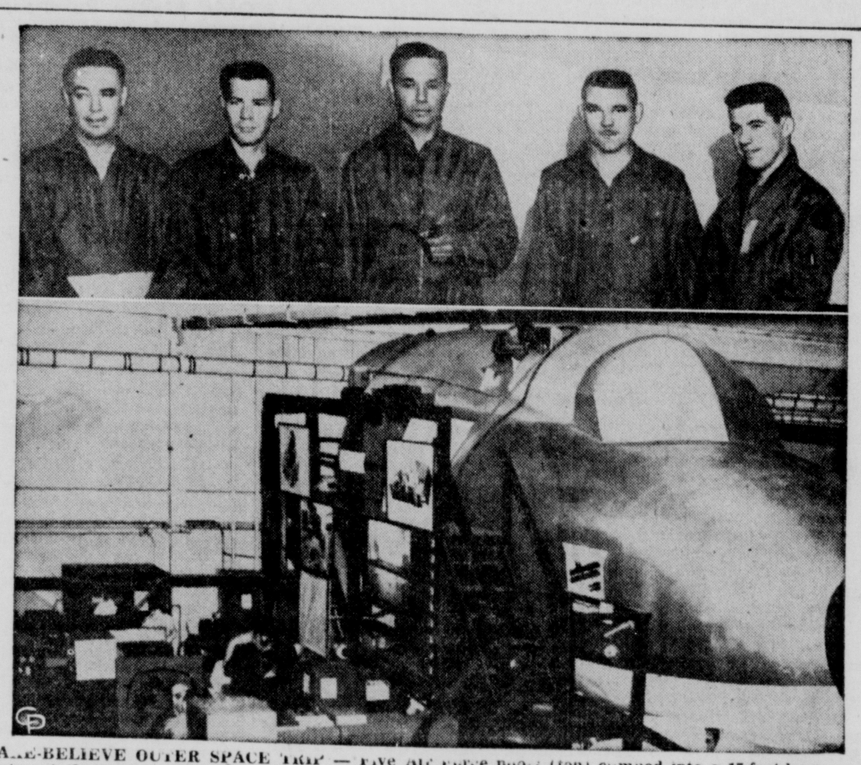

Aided by an IQ far above that of a genius, he mastered more than a score of languages. He corresponded with many of the world's leading intellectuals.

On Feb. 20, the parole board gave Leopold his freedom.

Leopold from the first favored an offer from the Church of the Brethren's mission hospital in Castaner, P.R. He was offered room and board and $10 a month to work as a hospital technician. It was this job the parole board finally approved.

Despite the small salary, it is unlikely Leopold will suffer financial hardship. He will have a $2,000 yearly income from a $50,000 trust fund and a legacy from an aunt totaling about $10,000.

In addition, it is expected he will receive royalties from a book he wrote about his prison life.

MAKE-BELIEVE OUTER SPACE TRIP — Five Air Force pilots (top) climbed into a 17-foot-long compartment (bottom) at Wright Patterson Air Development center in Dayton, O., for a five-day simulated tour of outer space. They will try to live together and perform efficiently under long range flight conditions. The pilots are (from left) Capts. Lawrence McEachern, Dan Fulgham, James Kennedy, William Johnson and Maj. Russell Brewington, the craft commander.

FCC To Review Miami TV Case

WASINHGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission today moved to reconsider its grant of TV channel 10 at Miami, Fla., the central case in a House investigation that led to the resignation of Commissioner Richard A. Mack.

The commission, taking note of charges in the House investigation that pressures may have entered into the award, filed a motion in the U. S. Court of Appeals requesting that the case be returned to the FCC for further review.

By a 4-2 vote last year, the FCC awarded the channel to Public Service Television, Inc., a subsidiary of National Airlines.

The FCC decision is now before the appeals court in two cases.

In one of these, WKAT, Inc., an unsuccessful bidder for the channel, is challenging FCC's refusal of last September to reconsider the grant to Public Service.

The other appeals court case was brought by Eastern Air Lines, which asked the court to overrule an FCC order which denied Eastern the right to intervene in the channel 10 proceeding as a protestant.

* * *

THE COMMISSION move for return of the case to it came as the House investigating committee was continuing its inquiry into financial relations between Mack and Thurman Whiteside, a wealthy Miami attorney and long-time friend of the ex-commissioner.

Whiteside has acknowledged making loans and giving other financial assistance to Mack.

At one time, Whiteside was plugging for award of the channel to Public Service but never was an attorney of record in the case and has testified he refused an offer of employment by the law firm which was handling Public Service's application.

Also on tap for a return appearance was A. Frank Katzentine, Miami Beach radio station operator who lost his bid for TV Channel 10 in Miami.

The two other listed witnesses, Alfred Barton of Miami and Frank Miller of New York, have been quoted by Katzentine as telling him before the FCC decision in February 1957 that they had heard he was going to lose.

To Meny OSU Students Cant Spel Nuthin

COLUMBUS (AP) — The somewhat dismaying spelling foibles of today's college students have come to light in the latest issue of the Ohio State University monthly.

Sadly enuf (pardon, enough), the spelling purists found that many of the odd-ball spellings were from documents the students themselves filled out.

The report on atrocious spelling was made by Drs. William T. Palchanis and William C. Stahl of the university medical staff. Here are some excerpts from their report:

"Students have reported on their medical histories such childhood illnesses as measels, bronicle nomonia, hooping cough, rumatic feavor and diptherie. During their adolescence many are afflicted with asma, accute appendisidus, stummach truble and toncilitas.

As a hobbie some list swiming and bolling, some build modle airplanse, while others are interested in antigue cars and sailing boats. One just enjoys listening to musik.

"Many students in describing their present health will indicate it is excelent, some described it as vary good and others simply state that they are in good phisecul and mentle condition."

Cuban Liberties Are Suspended by Government Chiefs

HAVANA (AP) — Armed with a new decree suspending civil liberties, President Fugencio Batista's police and army stood ready to smash antigovernment demonstrations if thousands of Havana University students go through with plans to hold a mass meeting today.

The students planned to assemble on the first anniversary of a rebel invasion of Batista's palace. About 20 persons were killed at the palace and 20 more elsewhere in Havana during a daring but poorly organized plot to kill or kidnap the Cuban president.

The suspension of civil liberties was rammed through Batista's new "peace cabinet" in an emergency session, forcing the resignation of Premier Emilio Nunez Portuondo.

The fiery little diplomat's walkout was a face-saving gesture. Only the night before he had promised constitutional guarantees would not be suspended for the eighth time in 15 months. His cabinet resigned with him, then most of the ministers took their jobs back.

* * *

BATISTA WAS reported to have named Gonzolo Guell as the new premier.

The first effect of the new decree was to bring back censorship of Cuban newspapers, radio and TV as well as outgoing foreign dispatches.

All mass meetings were banned, in effect halting campaigning for the June 1 presidential election.

The decree remains in force 45 days but can be renewed.

Reports from Santiago on the southeastern coast said a well armed rebel force of 300 men launched a dawn assault from the sugar mill town of Miranda, 25 miles to the northwest.

The assault group apparently linked up with an estimated 150 rebels who had been operating in the area. They kidnaped the foreman of a nearby farm and forced him to guide them to the town of Palmarito, about three miles south, where they clashed with army forces.

The army was reported to be bombing and strafing rebel positions with three planes. Artillery was used and two small reconnaissance aircraft hovered over the area as spotters.

$2-$3 Weekly Tax Cut Eyed

No Assurance Given By Congress on Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — An income tax cut of the sort now under consideration in Congress would add an extra $2 to $3 to the weekly pay check of the average American breadwinner.

In the aggregate, it would mean the quick addition of an estimated $5 billion in new consumer buying power. This added buying power is the primary goal of tax planners seeking a quick antirecession stimulant.

Whether a tax cut actually will be attempted, and when, have not yet been decided. It is one of several things under study.

Congressional tax experts say that any tax cut would be reflected immediately in the form of fatter employe paychecks because of lower tax withholdings.

Self-employed individuals, who pay their taxes quarterly, would be able to give themselves a tax credit equal to the percentage cut when mailing their next quarterly tax installment.

* * *

THE GREATEST impact of an overall individual income tax cut would be on the low and middle income taxpayer, who make up the majority of the nation's 48 million individual taxpayers.

The plan under serious consideration by House leaders would cut from 20 per cent to 15 per cent the tax on the first $1,000 of taxable income—in effect a 25 per cent cut there. A 5 per cent cut would be provided in all other personal income tax rates.

If enacted, this cut would mean another $2 of weekly spendable income for the average married taxpayer with two dependents who earns $5,000 a year.

For the taxpayer in the $10,000 income bracket, the tax saving is estimated in the neighborhood of $3 a week.

Girl 'About Same' Following Surgery

CLEVELAND (AP)—The condition of 11-year-old Susan Kurtz of Onsted, Mich., was reported as "about the same" early today as the critical 48-hour post-operation period neared an end.

A six-hour operation at St. Luke's Hospital to repair the girl's defective heart ended early Tuesday afternoon. A hospital spokesman reported her condition as satisfactory following the surgery, but explained that it would be 48 hours before the ultimate success of the operation could be determined.

A physician told her father, Lloyd Kurtz, prior to the operation that surgery had but one chance in five of correcting her condition, but without it she could live no more than six months.

Ohio's Farm Income Said Near $1 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio farmers received almost one billion dollars from the sale of crops and livestock during 1957, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

The exact figure was $990,526,000—a decrease of 3 per cent from 1956 and 2 per cent under the 10-year (1947-56) average of $1,015,644,000.

The net income per Ohio farm last year was $2,117, down five per cent from 1956, the department said.

A decline in corn and wheat prices is primarily responsible for the dip in income, the department reported.

Cash receipts for livestock and livestock products totaled $637,210,000 up 2 per cent over 1956. But receipts for crops during 1957 dropped to their lowest level since 1951. The total was $353,316,000, the department estimated.

Total payments made to Ohio farmers under federal price support and soil bank programs almost doubled last year. The figure was $30,678,000 as compared with $15,985,000 in 1956.

City Agrees: Man Not Too Dirty To Take Bath

IPSWICH, England (AP) — A man who was told he was too dirty to have a shower at the municipal bath house won a letter of apology from the town clerk Wednesday.

Brian Jennings, 22, a mate on a coastal barge, said the attendants turned him away when he sought to wash off the grime of a voyage from London. Town Clerk J. C. Nelson wrote that the attendants have been reprimanded.

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A first-person story of prostitution and pandering operations in Cincinnati and northern Kentucky night spots was spread on Federal Court records today, told by a 17-year-old Ohio girl appearing as a government witness against two Cleveland men.

The two defendants, each charged in two counts of transporting women across state lines for immoral purposes, are David R. Timms, 24, alias Russell Pendleton and Arthur L. Englander, 28, alias Arthur Evans.

Also involved are two other girls, one 15 and the other 18. The 17-year-old listed Williamsport (Morrow County) as her former home.

After operations were set up in a Cincinnati apartment, the witness said, "Timms discussed tricks of the trade with me. He said none of the girls should take less than $20 and that the man who worked with her would always get half."

On Feb. 12, she continued, they went to nearby Newport, Ky., "to show off the 15-year-old girl to the bartenders so they could solicit business for that night."

On one occasion, she recounted, she was run out of a Cincinnati cafe when "I tried a con game on a young man who turned out to be a relative of a Cincinnati policeman . . . things got too hot for us and we moved our operations to Newport."

Henry Cook, district attorney, told a jury hearing the case that Timms and Englander instructed the 15-year old girl how to use makeup and how to wear tight-fitting clothing before they took her on a tour of night spots to solicit business.

Stuard Wegener, defense attorney, contended his clients had come from Cleveland "for a vacation and were taken in" by the girls.

Dulles Warned Tunisia May Abandon West

Bourguiba Declares U.S. Diplomat Holds Key in French Fuss

TUNIS (AP) — Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba today called on Secretary of State Dulles to support his country by next Thursday in her dispute with France or lose Tunisia's allegiance to the West.

Bourguiba canceled public celebrations of the second anniversary of independence from France and warned that Tunisia might have to fight France again.

In his weekly radio speech Bourguiba said: "We are not truly free. It is not excluded that we will take up fight again."

March 20, the independence anniversary, "is the fatal date," he continued. "I hope that between now and then our misunderstandings with the free world will be dissipated."

"We are at the crossroads," he declared.

"Dulles holds the key to the problem. He must decide.

* * *

"HIS DECISION will not hurt France, for to be a supporter of justice is to save France from her own weaknesses."

Bourguiba, since the French bombing of the Tunisian village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef on Feb. 8, has been demanding that France will pull out the 22,000 troops she has had in the country under the 1956 independence agreement. A. U. S.-British good offices team has been trying to bring the two governments together.

U.S. To Launch 25 Satellites 'Soon'

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The United States soon will have 25 satellites whirling around in outer space, says Dr. T. J. Killian, deputy director and chief scientist of the Office of Naval Research.

While satellites have no value as launching platforms, Killian said, he thinks they are of military value for surveillance and communications.

"They can serve as relay points for communications," he said. "And when we have 25 satellites in the air, as we soon will, they could even serve as double relay points."

Cuban Liberties Are Suspended by Government Chiefs

HAVANA (AP) — Armed with a new decree suspending civil liberties, President Fugencio Batista's police and army stood ready to smash antigovernment demonstrations if thousands of Havana University students go through with plans to hold a mass meeting today.

The students planned to assemble on the first anniversary of a rebel invasion of Batista's palace. About 20 persons were killed at the palace and 20 more elsewhere in Havana during a daring but poorly organized plot to kill or kidnap the Cuban president.

The suspension of civil liberties was rammed through Batista's new "peace cabinet" in an emergency session, forcing the resignation of Premier Emilio Nunez Portuondo.

The fiery little diplomat's walkout was a face-saving gesture. Only the night before he had promised constitutional guarantees would not be suspended for the eighth time in 15 months. His cabinet resigned with him, then most of the ministers took their jobs back.

* * *

BATISTA WAS reported to have named Gonzolo Guell as the new premier.

The first effect of the new decree was to bring back censorship of Cuban newspapers, radio and TV as well as outgoing foreign dispatches.

All mass meetings were banned, in effect halting campaigning for the June 1 presidential election.

The decree remains in force 45 days but can be renewed.

Reports from Santiago on the southeastern coast said a well armed rebel force of 300 men launched a dawn assault from the sugar mill town of Miranda, 25 miles to the northwest.

The assault group apparently linked up with an estimated 150 rebels who had been operating in the area. They kidnaped the foreman of a nearby farm and forced him to guide them to the town of Palmarito, about three miles south, where they clashed with army forces.

The army was reported to be bombing and strafing rebel positions with three planes. Artillery was used and two small reconnaissance aircraft hovered over the area as spotters.

FCC To Review Miami TV Case

WASINHGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission today moved to reconsider its grant of TV channel 10 at Miami, Fla., the central case in a House investigation that led to the resignation of Commissioner Richard A. Mack.

The commission, taking note of charges in the House investigation that pressures may have entered into the award, filed a motion in the U. S. Court of Appeals requesting that the case be returned to the FCC for further review.

By a 4-2 vote last year, the FCC awarded the channel to Public Service Television, Inc., a subsidiary of National Airlines.

The FCC decision is now before the appeals court in two cases.

In one of these, WKAT, Inc., an unsuccessful bidder for the channel, is challenging FCC's refusal of last September to reconsider the grant to Public Service.

The other appeals court case was brought by Eastern Air Lines, which asked the court to overrule an FCC order which denied Eastern the right to intervene in the channel 10 proceeding as a protestant.

* * *

THE COMMISSION move for return of the case to it came as the House investigating committee was continuing its inquiry into financial relations between Mack and Thurman Whiteside, a wealthy Miami attorney and long-time friend of the ex-commissioner.

Whiteside has acknowledged making loans and giving other financial assistance to Mack.

At one time, Whiteside was plugging for award of the channel to Public Service but never was an attorney of record in the case and has testified he refused an offer of employment by the law firm which was handling Public Service's application.

Also on tap for a return appearance was A. Frank Katzentine, Miami Beach radio station operator who lost his bid for TV Channel 10 in Miami.

The two other listed witnesses, Alfred Barton of Miami and Frank Miller of New York, have been quoted by Katzentine as telling him before the FCC decision in February 1957 that they had heard he was going to lose.

To Meny OSU Students Cant Spel Nuthin

COLUMBUS (AP) — The somewhat dismaying spelling foibles of today's college students have come to light in the latest issue of the Ohio State University monthly.

Sadly enuf (pardon, enough), the spelling purists found that many of the odd-ball spellings were from documents the students themselves filled out.

The report on atrocious spelling was made by Drs. William T. Palchanis and William C. Stahl of the university medical staff. Here are some excerpts from their report:

"Students have reported on their medical histories such childhood illnesses as measels, bronicle nomonia, hooping cough, rumatic feavor and diptherie. During their adolescence many are afflicted with asma, accute appendisidus, stummach truble and toncilitas.

As a hobbie some list swiming and bolling, some build modle airplanse, while others are interested in antigue cars and sailing boats. One just enjoys listening to musik.

"Many students in describing their present health will indicate it is excelent, some described it as vary good and other simply state that they are in good phiseul and mentle condition."

$2-$3 Weekly Tax Cut Eyed

No Assurance Given By Congress on Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — An income tax cut of the sort now under consideration in Congress would add an extra $2 to $3 to the weekly pay check of the average American breadwinner.

In the aggregate, it would mean the quick addition of an estimated $5 billion in new consumer buying power. This added buying power is the primary goal of tax planners seeking a quick antirecession stimulant.

Whether a tax cut actually will be attempted, and when, have not yet been decided. It is one of several things under study.

Congressional tax experts say that any tax cut would be reflected immediately in the form of fatter employe paychecks because of lower tax withholdings.

Self-employed individuals, who pay their taxes quarterly, would be able to give themselves a tax credit equal to the percentage cut when mailing their next quarterly tax installment.

* * *

THE GREATEST impact of an overall individual income tax cut would be on the low and middle income taxpayer, who make up the majority of the nation's 48 million individual taxpayers.

The plan under serious consideration by House leaders would cut from 20 per cent to 15 per cent the tax on the first $1,000 of taxable income—in effect a 25 per cent cut there. A 5 per cent cut would be provided in all other personal income tax rates.

If enacted, this cut would mean another $2 of weekly spendable income for the average married taxpayer with two dependents who earns $5,000 a year.

For the taxpayer in the $10,000 income bracket, the tax saving is estimated in the neighborhood of $3 a week.

Girl 'About Same' Following Surgery

CLEVELAND (AP)—The condition of 11-year-old Susan Kurtz of Onsted, Mich., was reported as "about the same" early today as the critical 48-hour post-operation period neared an end.

A six-hour operation at St. Luke's Hospital to repair the girl's defective heart ended early Tuesday afternoon. A hospital spokesman reported her condition as satisfactory following the surgery, but explained that it would be 48 hours before the ultimate success of the operation could be determined.

A physician told her father, Lloyd Kurtz, prior to the operation that surgery had but one chance in five of correcting her condition, but without it she could live no more than six months.

Ohio's Farm Income Said Near $1 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio farmers received almost one billion dollars from the sale of crops and livestock during 1957, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

The exact figure was $990,526,000—a decrease of 3 per cent from 1956 and 2 per cent under the 10-year (1947-56) average of $1,015,644,000.

The net income per Ohio farm last year was $2,117, down five per cent from 1956, the department said.

A decline in corn and wheat prices is primarily responsible for the dip in income, the department reported.

Cash receipts for livestock and livestock products totaled $637,210,000 up 2 per cent over 1956. But receipts for crops during 1957 dropped to their lowest level since 1951. The total was $353,316,000, the department estimated.

Total payments made to Ohio farmers under federal price support and soil bank programs almost doubled last year. The figure was $30,678,000 as compared with $15,985,000 in 1956.

City Agrees: Man Not Too Dirty To Take Bath

IPSWICH, England (AP) — A man who was told he was too dirty to have a shower at the municipal bath house won a letter of apology from the town clerk Wednesday.

Brian Jennings, 22, a mate on a coastal barge, said the attendants turned him away when he sought to wash off the grime of a voyage from London. Town Clerk J. C. Nelson wrote that the attendants have been reprimanded.

Leopold Leaves Prison Today After 33½ Years as Convict

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — Nathan Leopold, who served 33½ years in prison for a bobbled effort to commit a perfect murder, walked to freedom today determined to become a perfect example of prison rehabilitation.

After a secret meeting with relatives in Chicago, he plans to fly to Puerto Rico for a $10-a-month job as a laboratory worker in a mission hospital.

The Illinois Parole and Pardon Board approved his request to take the job, thus authorizing his release on parole for five years.

In 1924, Leopold, son of a wealthy Chicago family, and Richard Loeb, his fellow University of Chicago student, committed what they thought was the "perfect crime"—the murder of a neighbor boy, Bobby Franks, 14.

With terrifying coldness they worked out the details of their crime. They abducted Bobby near a playground, beat him to death with a heavy chisel and stuffed his body in a culvert.

On Sept. 11, 1924, they went to prison for life on the charge of murder and 99 years for kidnaping. Loeb died in 1936 in a fight with another inmate.

Leopold, now 53, was what prison officials termed a "model prisoner." He served as a guinea pig in wartime malaria experiments, established a correspondence school for convicts, reorganized the prison library and worked in the prison hospital.

Aided by an IQ far above that of a genius, he mastered more than a score of languages. He corresponded with many of the world's leading intellectuals.

On Feb. 20, the parole board gave Leopold his freedom.

Leopold from the first favored an offer from the Church of the Brethren's mission hospital in Castaner, P.R. He was offered room and board and $10 a month to work as a hospital technician. It was this job the parole board finally approved.

Despite the small salary, it is unlikely Leopold will suffer financial hardship. He will have a $2,000 yearly income from a $50,000 trust fund and a legacy from an aunt totaling about $10,000.

In addition, it is expected he will receive royalties from a book he wrote about his prison life.

Dunked Diesel Due For Inspection

TWO RIVERS, Wis. (AP)—A muddy diesel locomotive was hoisted out of Lake Michigan Wednesday, but authorities were unable to find immediately any clue why it went into the harbor a week ago.

There was nothing in the cab to indicate anyone had tampered with the controls, according to Frank Ellis of Chicago, chief special agent for the Chicago & North Western Railroad.

Ellis said the engine would be taken to the yards at Green Bay for a minute mechanical inspection to determine whether a faulty mechanism had sent the engine and nine loaded freight cars on an unmanned trip from Manitowoc last Friday.

Tink's Burglar Gets Pen Term

Probationer Put Back into Jail

Earl Joseph Roberts, 35, Ross County, also known as Robert Jackson and several other aliases, was sentenced yesterday to the Ohio State Penitentiary, Columbus, for a robbery committed at Tink's Tavern on Dec. 4, 1957. Sentence was passed in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court with Judge William Ammer presiding.

Roberts recieved sentences of one to 15 years at hard labor for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season and one to seven years at hard labor for grand larceny. The sentences are to run concurrently.

Roberts was apprehended in the early morning after he had completed a thorough job of looting Tink's. He was arrested by the Sheriff's Department after a tip. Roberts was reported to have caused much disturbance during his tenure in the Pickaway County jail, but he heard his sentence quietly and without commotion.

Ted Silvia was sentenced to serve out his previous jail sentence after breaking probation.

Silvia was sentenced Dec. 16, 1957, to 90 days in the county jail for petit larceny, and was also placed on a five-year probation for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season.

* * *

IN JANUARY Silvia had his jail sentence suspended on the grounds that his family was in dire financial straights and needed his support. It was reported his family had a job for him at Mt. Carmel Hospital, which Silvia refused to take.

After examining the evidence and hearing Silvia plead his innocence Judge William Amer revoked Silvia's parole and reimposed the rest of his 90-day sentence.

Royce Dansell Davis was placed on two years probation for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season.

Davis broke ito a South Bloomfield gasoline station in 1955 and make off with $51 worth of cigarettes and miscellaneous items. Before he was apprehended for this robbery he was arrested and sentenced in Franklin County for a similiar crime.

Davis served 18 months in the Mansfield Reformatory and upon his release was returned to Pickaway County for trial. Davis pleaded guilty to the crime and asked for clemancy because he had a wife and a small child. Davis stated that he had learned his lesson while in Mansfield and wished a break.

Eugene Neff, Circleville, was given a last chance by Judge Ammer after breaking his probation and received a year's extension on his probation period, which will now end March 16, 1960.

Neff was arrested and placed on a three-year probation in March 1956 for issuing checks with no account. He broke his probation in January 1958 when arrested by the Circleville Police for driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicants. He was driving a car while his driver's license was under suspension for the same crime in 1955.

Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb had sentenced Neff to the usual $200 and costs and jail sentence. Neff was serving his fine out in jail.

Dollarwise, sales amounted to $223,698,462, an increase of $4,515,515 over 1956.

The increase was due to mounting retail sales. Wholesale sales to permit holders who sell by the glass declined, Moon said.

DiSalle Sees This as His Winning Year

CLEVELAND (AP)—Michael V. DiSalle, seeking the Democratic nomination for governor, told a radio audience Wednesday night that he believes this will be his "pennant-winning year."

Appearing on (a radio) program, the former Toledo mayor answered questions phoned in by the radio audience.

Asked why he thought he could win this year after losing three times in statewide elections, DiSalle answered:

"I've seen a ball club lose as many as seven straight games and then go on to take the pennant. I think this is a pennant-winning year for me."

In response to other questions DiSalle said:

The $65-per-month ceiling on aid for the aged should be removed and payments made on a basis of need.

The state should not ask for a "say of execution" on payment of supplemental unemployment benefits while the case is being appealed.

Blue laws are "antiquated" and cannot be strictly enforced.

Commenting on a proposed amendment to the state constitution which would ban the union shop, DiSalle said "the less the government enters into the collective bargaining arrangement the better."

Dunked Diesel Due For Inspection

TWO RIVERS, Wis. (AP)—A muddy diesel locomotive was hoisted out of Lake Michigan Wednesday, but authorities were unable to find immediately any clue why it went into the harbor a week ago.

There was nothing in the cab to indicate anyone had tampered with the controls, according to Frank Ellis of Chicago, chief special agent for the Chicago & North Western Railroad.

Ellis said the engine would be taken to the yards at Green Bay for a minute mechanical inspection to determine whether a faulty mechanism had sent the engine and nine loaded freight cars on an unmanned trip from Manitowoc last Friday.

Tink's Burglar Gets Pen Term

Probationer Put Back into Jail

Earl Joseph Roberts, 35, Ross County, also known as Robert Jackson and several other aliases, was sentenced yesterday to the Ohio State Penitentiary, Columbus, for a robbery committed at Tink's Tavern on Dec. 4, 1957. Sentence was passed in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court with Judge William Ammer presiding.

Roberts recieved sentences of one to 15 years at hard labor for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season and one to seven years at hard labor for grand larceny. The sentences are to run concurrently.

Roberts was apprehended in the early morning after he had completed a thorough job of looting Tink's. He was arrested by the Sheriff's Department after a tip. Roberts was reported to have caused much disturbance during his tenure in the Pickaway County jail, but he heard his sentence quietly and without commotion.

Ted Silvia was sentenced to serve out his previous jail sentence after breaking probation.

Silvia was sentenced Dec. 16, 1957, to 90 days in the county jail for petit larceny, and was also placed on a five-year probation for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season.

* * *

IN JANUARY Silvia had his jail sentence suspended on the grounds that his family was in dire financial straights and needed his support. It was reported his family had a job for him at Mt. Carmel Hospital, which Silvia refused to take.

After examining the evidence and hearing Silvia plead his innocence Judge William Amer revoked Silvia's parole and reimposed the rest of his 90-day sentence.

Royce Dansell Davis was placed on two years probation for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling during the night season.

Davis broke ito a South Bloomfield gasoline station in 1955 and make off with $51 worth of cigarettes and miscellaneous items. Before he was apprehended for this robbery he was arrested and sentenced in Franklin County for a similiar crime.

Davis served 18 months in the Mansfield Reformatory and upon his release was returned to Pickaway County for trial. Davis pleaded guilty to the crime and asked for clemancy because he had a wife and a small child. Davis stated that he had learned his lesson while in Mansfield and wished a break.

Eugene Neff, Circleville, was given a last chance by Judge Ammer after breaking his probation and received a year's extension on his probation period, which will now end March 16, 1960.

Neff was arrested and placed on a three-year probation in March 1956 for issuing checks with no account. He broke his probation in January 1958 when arrested by the Circleville Police for driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicants. He was driving a car while his driver's license was under suspension for the same crime in 1955.

Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb had sentenced Neff to the usual $200 and costs and jail sentence. Neff was serving his fine out in jail.

One of them was carrying a can of green water-base paint.

Police discovered that more than 30 windows of the school had been decorated with slogans in praise of the prowess of St. Vincent.

Ohio Liquor Purchases Set Record in 1957

COLUMBUS (AP)—Thirsty Ohioans purchasd 12,224,408 gallons of liquor last year — a record for the state.

Liquor Director Floyd C. Moon said the 1957 total topped 1956 sales—the previous record year — by 67,668 gallons.

Dollarwise, sales amounted to $223,698,462, an increase of $4,515,-515 over 1956.

The increase was due to mounting retail sales. Wholesale sales to permit holders who sell by the glass declined, Moon said.

DiSalle Sees This as His Winning Year

CLEVELAND (AP)—Michael V. DiSalle, seeking the Democratic nomination for governor, told a radio audience Wednesday night that he believes this will be his "pennant-winning year."

Appearing on (a radio) program, the former Toledo mayor answered questions phoned in by the radio audience.

Asked why he thought he could win this year after losing three times in statewide elections, DiSalle answered:

"I've seen a ball club lose as many as seven straight games and then go on to take the pennant. I think this is a pennant-winning year for me."

In response to other questions DiSalle said:

The $65-per-month ceiling on aid for the aged should be removed and payments made on a basis of need.

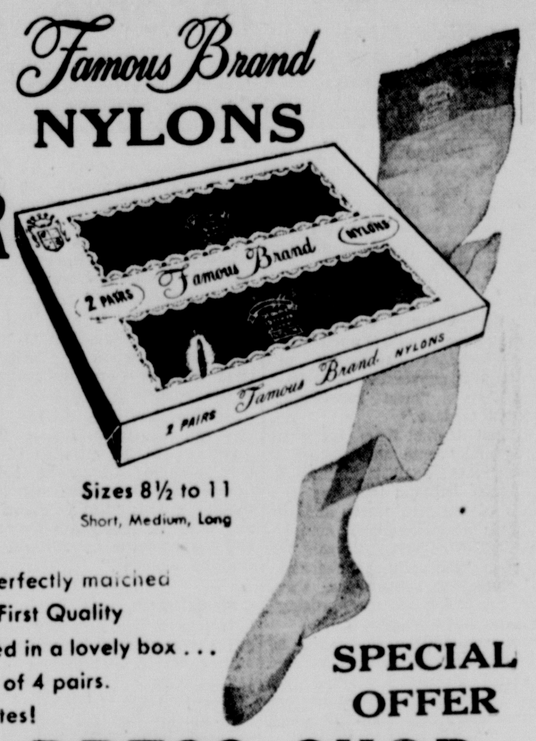

The state should not ask for a "say of execution" on payment of supplemental unemployment benefits while the case is being appealed.

Blue laws are "antiquated" and cannot be strictly enforced.

Commenting on a proposed amendment to the state constitution which would ban the union shop, DiSalle said "the less the government enters into the collective bargaining arrangement the better."

Second Asian Flu Epidemic Held Unlikely by Experts

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service feels it is unlikely — but possible — that a second epidemic wave of Asian flu will follow on the heels of the virtually ended recent outbreak.

So says Dr. William H. Stewart, assistant to Surgeon General Leroy W. Burney, in summarizing the American experience in the recent worldwide epidemic which:

Sickened millions and killed thousands throughout the world, although the death rate was very low; struck an estimated 20 million Americans, killing not less than 6,500; caused the temporary closing of hundreds of U.S. schools and cost industry a staggering total of man-hours lost.

But even if a second nationwide epidemic should occur between now and the first of May, said Stewart in an interview, the service feels it would be "relatively mild from the standpoint of the mortality being very, very low, as it has been in the recent epidemic."

"Since you can't say with certainty that a second wave will or will not occur," he said, "the wisest course is to be conservative and make your plans" on the basis of possible recurrence.

"Thus the health service is continuing to urge people who haven't already done so to get vaccinated —particularly people in the 'high risk' groups such as the chronically ill, the aged, and pregnant women," Stewart emphasized. "In these groups we are also recommending second shots for the highest individual protection."

On the unlikely side of the picture, health officials point out that despite the global scope of the recent epidemic, only one country has reported what appeared like a substantial second wave. That was in Japan, but the outbreak there has pretty well died down now.

Meanwhile, here's a rundown on the American phase of the worldwide epidemic which started in Red China last February but didn't reach the United States until June:

1. More than 20 million Americans are believed to have been affected, most of them since September, with the peak of the epidemic occurring in mid-October. This is the largest number of flu cases of any kind since the 1918 epidemic.

2. Total number of deaths has not been specifically determined, but one indication is this:

Between September and March 1, the latest statistics available 108 major cities of the United States reported 16,174 deaths from influenza and pneumonia, compared with 9,038 for the same period a year ago. The difference, health service officials say, indicates about 6,500 deaths were due to the 1957-1958 outbreak of Asian flu. Fatal cases have occurred most frequently among the aged.

3. Approximately 40 million cubic centimeters of vaccine have been used so far—indicating that at least that many persons have been vaccinated.

Ohio Underground Water Below Par

COLUMBUS (AP)—Lack of precipitation and sub-freezing temperatures combined to hold Ohio stream levels at a minimum through most of February, State Hydrologist Paul Kaser reports.

Considerable snow fell during February, but when reduced to water accounted for only about one-half of the month's total precipitation. Heavy rains in the last few days of the month prevented a record low precipitation mark.

One month of above normal precipitation and stream flow could restore underground water levels to normal, Kaser predicted. Prospects are very good that underground levels will rise in the next 30 days, he added.

Smaller World, Larger Problems

As of now, an old-fashioned man is one who doesn't wish to go to the moon just yet. He is the man who remembers horses and still regards the lantern of lovers as located about on the rim of oblivion just beyond the attainable, where s a n e people don't reach for it.

A measure of the pace of scientific development is the speed with which anyone's notion of the impossible is overtaken by accomplished fact. A n o t h e r is the shrinkage of distance.

One does not have to be very old to recall when 30 miles was a hazardous day's outing even—or especially—by car. Untill 30 years age, Europe was a separate continent, exotic goal of the streamer chair set, and the fact that the top and bottom of the world were poles apart, really meant something. Lindbergh and Byrd changed all that.

Still, up to about the day before yesterday, despite the statesmen and other eliche experts, the world itself wasn't really a small place. Man might dream astronomical distances but the distances he could experience were still only those on earth. To go far away he could still go not much farther than from here to Timbuctoo, even if he wished to get away from it all.

Only now has distance itself passed out of this world, to be measured in orbits of expanding elasticity. Many are still wondering in an old-fashioned way where that leaves their old ideas of near and far.

It cannot be long before nothing will be thought of as far except what is beyond the atmosphere. Much more significantly than now men will then live close together, some closer and some cheek by jowl.

It is easy to foresee in such propinquity some bright new opportunities, but also in the simultaneous destruction of what Balzac called "the exquisite politeness of distance" some new and more bedeviling problems.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, in fighting the recession, has one problem President Hoover shared in the early 1930 depression days, and other problems which either didn't exist for Hoover or were secondary.

Both men's primary task was getting the American economy back on its feet. Hoover failed badly. But Eisenhower also has to worry about the effect of an American economic tailspin would have in other countries. That was truly a secondary concern for Hoover.

The early 1930s were a time of American isolation, mental and financial. This country, following its historic tradition of avoiding foreign entanglements, had no military alliances.

So Hoover didn't have to worry about maintaining or supporting anything like that while this country was concentrating on bailing itself out at home.

The attitude of this country in the early 1930s was pretty much that of letting the rest of the world worry about itself.

In the early 1930s, under Hoover, Congress passed the Smoot-Hawley Tariff Act, highest in history, to keep out the competition of foreign goods. In turn, it helped close foreign markets to us.

The United States wasn't too concerned about the spread of communism overseas. The men in the Kremlin, still struggling to make communism work in Russia, were years away from their later successes and their present aggressive expansionism.

It's all changed for Eisenhower. Since the war this country has pumped about 60 billion dollars into foreign aid of various kinds. American policy—in the foreseeable future—is to continue pumping it.

Part of this foreign aid money goes into helping American allies maintain their own armed forces as a defense against the Soviets and Red Chinese.

But now, increasingly successful at home, the Russians are beginning to try to offset American foreign aid by foreign aid of their own.

If the present recession slides into depression, with antirecession government spending far exceeding the revenue from taxes, there will no doubt be severe pressure at home to cut down on foreign aid, or cut it out.

But a guiding principle behind foreign aid is to help keep the non-Communist world out of the Communist grip.

The psychological effect of an American depression might well be worse abroad than any reduction of American foreign aid or even a weakening of this country's alliances.

Meaning: the Russians have been preaching the superiority of their system and the ultimate collapse of capitalism. This country has preached just the opposite, holding up the American standard of living, highest anywhere, as the prime proof and example.

A full-scale depression—besides weakening non-Communist countries financially too—would go a long way toward making Communist arguments against capitalism sound more plausible overseas.

Lost: $100 Million a Year

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Money may be harder to get now, but it's still easy to lose.

A survey by the American Express Co. showed that U. S. citizens reported losing more than $100 million in cash last year, in most cases through their own carelessness.

This is enough to buy a Harvard education for 10,000 students or to build a community of 5,000 homes.

Astonishing as this figure is, D o n a l d E. J. MacNamara, crime consultant for the company, says it doesn't tell the whole story.

The reported l o s s e s alone come to $100 million, he said, but the amount of money actually inadvertently lost each year, and not reported, is probably many times that figure.

McNamara, dean of the New York Institute of Criminology, spent 15 years abroad as an investigator for the armed forces and has concluded, "Americans are by far the most careless people in the world with money."

The American man, not the American woman, is the major culprit.

"A man often won't even bother to report a loss if it is less than $25," said MacNamara. "but if a woman loses a quarter in a restaurant, she'll report it to the manager."

"Although most money is lost outside the home," said MacNamara, "hidden money in the house is often lost, too."

People still hide money in a furnace in the summer, forget, and burn it up the next winter. Or they bury it, only to discover later that mice, rot, insects or water have ruined it. Every year about 45,000 people bring currency fragments to the U.S. Treasury, hoping to redeem it, he said.

Here are his tips for cutting down careless money losses:

Don't have any more cash on you or in your home than you absolutely need. Use checks.

A woman should carry her money only in a small bag she can hold in her hand at all times, not in a big bag slung over her arm or shoulder.

A man should carry his wallet in his inside coat pocket. That is the safest place, because to get at it a pickpocket has to face you, something he doesn't like to do.

Exercise Vital to Everyone

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

No matter how old you are, you still need a certain amount of exercise. With the elderly, this should not present a real problem, if they do not overdo it or underdo it.

I exercise each day, and have adopted a simple method which many of you businessmen might copy.

My office is on the third floor. We have elevator s e r v i c e of course, and most of our employes use it all the time, regardless of age. But we also have stairways. You would be surprised how uncrowded they are!

Whenever I have to go to the fourth floor, I walk. Whenever I have to go down to the second or first floors, I w a l k, I make it a rule always to walk up one flight and down as many as two.

But when I walk upstairs I go up but three steps, then hesitate just a second,, place both feet on the one step, then contiue upstairs.

This, I think is good advice for most of you, whether you are youngsters in the prime of life, middle-aged, or approaching what some may refer to as the "declining years."

If you have heart trouble or high blood pressure, however, you probably should avoid all stair-climbing.

There are many forms of excercise, of course. Most important thing for all of you over the age of 40 to remember is that, while you need your daily exercise, you must not do too much.

You must learn to stop any activity, especially if it is strenuous, before you become tired. As one doctor advised his patients, halt when you are "pleasantly pooped."

Rapid beating of the heart and quick breathing s h o u l d subside within a few minutes. If it doesn't, it's an indication that you have tried to do too much.

If you haven't been exercising much, your muscles and joints probably after t h e first three attempts. Resting two or three hours should take care of all the muscular aches and pains. It it doesn't, better see your doctor. Maybe you have suffered a strain or sprain.

It's essential to continue y o u r exercise regularly, even if it is simply walking to the train, in order to get the full benefits.

Now, one important word f o r those of you who are about to retire or have recently retired: Call the Salvation Army, the Goodwill Industries, or some such organization, and give them the old rocking chair.

You can't retain good physical or mental health just sittin' a n d rockin'.

Question and Answer

L. T.: I heard that smoking increases a tendency towards cancer of the lung. Would using a smoking filter help prevent this?

Answer: If the filter could be changed after every few smokes, it probably would help prevent cancer in those who are susceptible to it.

Good Medical Men Worth It

By George Sokolsky

Recognizing that half a century ago one who had my physical troubles did not long survive them, how can I worry about the fact that doctors, like the rest of us, charge for their services? When I have quarrelled w i t h them, it has not been about the bills. Considering that I am alive and able to do my work every day, as thousands of others are who have heart ailments, I am sure that an undertaker would have c h a r g e d more with less satisfactory results.

I write this because I h a v e been reading a general condemnation of doctors as a class. That is about as sensible as condemning lawyers, clergymen, teachers, businessmen or labor leaders as a class. Even in my own profession, there a r e persons who are not so perfect.

Of course, t h e r e are bad apples among them, just as Lucifer was once an angel. But if we are to generalize, w i t h o u t prejudice, the medical profession, on the whole, has done more for humanity, on a smaller return than any other professional group.

If the medical staff of our hospitals had to be paid wages for all the work the physicians and surgeons do free of charge, on the assumption that they are everlastingy learing and that in their profession the best way to learn is by doing no hospital would have sufficient funds to operate.

One day I needed a doctor urgently. The man who came was young, e n g a g i n g, obviously starting life. He charged me a few dollars. He became our family doctor. The years pass and this doctor decides that he wants to work in an experimental field. He t a k e s a year off, actually depriving himself and his family of income. He writes a book, becoming a specialist and devoting the greatest share of his waking time to continued experimental work.

When I was in the hospital, I realized how much time he spent with his rats in the laboratory. I was then not his patient but a friend. I had been handed over to strangers whom I did not know but I can say this that the great man who was brought in to determine whether I was alive or dead and who, my wife told me, stayed two and a half hours before it could be decided, only charged $100 for the visit. Had a w r o n g diagnosis been made that night, I would now be kicking up crocuses in a cemetery. My troubles were like that.

I know a c o u n t r y general practitioner who does at least 100 miles a day in his car, summer or winter, in heat or in snow. I have known him to drive a suffering man 18 or 20 miles to a hispital at 80 or 90 miles an hour, once burning out the motor of a new car to do it. I have known him during the winter to motor to a university 40 or 50 miles away to take a refresher course, let us say, concerning the heart, so that he can take care of the summer patients some of whom have heart troubles.

The farmers pay him what they can. Sometimes they p a y in things they grow because money is scarce. Some do not pay at all. The town contributes a certain amount, very small, because he is the town health officer. So highly is he regarded that some summer patients insist upon paying New Y o r k rates. He is a competent man.

Why have I had such good fortune to encounter men who have not c h a r g e d me more than their services were worth? Compare the total cost of cigarettes or cosmetics or pleasures during the year to the charge of a surgeon who every time he has to cut a stomach knows t h a t the risk is extraordinarily great and that each operation takes a toll of his own nervous system. For every doctor knows t h a t while the operation may be a success, the patient may die of side causes.

Whenever I am in a hospital, I am a trying patient because I am in a hurry to get back to my normal life. Also there are procedures and habits in this profession which irk me. Also I hate hospital food.

But let us face it: I am alive because a few dedicated human beings work day and night to discover how to keep such as me alive. To me, their services are cheap at any price, for death is final and it is finally expensive. It takes all. Let those who complain of bills look to their own charges.

Dayton Bus Company Due To Curtail Service

DAYTON (AP)—Dayton City Transit Co., which was recently denied four of five requested fare adjustments, has informed city commissioners it would cease all Sunday, holiday and after 9 p. m. weekday service effective April 13.

MRS. FREDA ALLENDER

Dinner and Social Session Held by Monday Club Group

Mrs. Freda Allender was the guest speaker at the annual dinner and social session of the Monday Club held Monday evening in the social rooms of the Presbyterian Church. Her subject was "You can create happiness" using as main theme the work of Walt Disney in his great accomplishment of his dream, "Disneyland".

Taking the group on an imaginary visit and tour of the fabulous Disneyland, Mrs. Allender graphically described the project from the time it was nothing but "acreage and a few houses", until it became the colorful playground it is today.

Mrs. Allender is qualified to speak from experience, for she personally trained the 600 employees of Disneyland in a series of classes that ran for three months. She also was "Mrs. Pixie" in the Santa Claus village of Sky Forest, Calif., and is currently on the weekly young people's program originated by Dr. Roy Burkhart of the First Community Church of Columbus.

A color scheme of green and yellow in spring flowers and shamrock gift baskets for each guest decorated the tables. The pre-dinner punch bowl handled by Mrs. Charles H. May. Mrs. Charles Reed gave the invocation. The dinner was served by Group A of the Presbyterian Church with the general chairman, Mrs. J. B. Stevenson to 54 guests.

Mrs. Barton Deming, president, introduced the new members, Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, Mrs. James Hodges, Mrs. Robert Moyer, Mrs. F. C. Tammany, Mrs. Homer Reber, Mrs. Kenneth Luna, Mrs. Milford Tassler, and Mrs. Robert Doherty. She introduced Mrs. Ray Davis, president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Davis spoke on the tradition of Monday Club and urged the members ot keep the spirit alive. She presented the president with a volume of the "History of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, 1924 - 54, to be turned over the the Pickaway County Library.

The program, Mrs. T. L. Huston, then introduced two musical numbers, "Oh, dear, what can the matter be?" arranged by Arthur Hall, a song popular during the time of Henry the Eighth, and "Birdsong at Eventide", by Coates, presented by the trio, Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, Mrs. James Hodtes, and Mrs. Ralph Dunkel. Mrs. Huston was the accompanist.

A pantomime "And the lamp went out" was given by Mrs. Kenneth Robbins, reader, Mrs. Robert Doherty, Mrs. Howard N. Stevenson, Mrs. Bishop Given, Mrs. Collis Young.

Prizes were won by Mrs. F. C. Tammany, Mrs. Anna Chandler, Mrs. Ione Reichelderfer, Mrs. Kenneth Luna, Mrs. Edwin Jury, Mrs. Bishop Given, Mrs. Frank Morrison and Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh.

Serving on the program committee with Mrs. Huston, were Mrs. Richard Robinson, Mrs. Harold Anderson, Mrs. George Barnes, Mrs. Earl Smith, and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson.

St. Philip's Auxiliary Holds Dinner-Fellowship

Dinner-Fellowship preceded the regular official session of St. Philip's Woman's Auxiliary Wednesday evening. Guests for the occasion were Mrs. Alphonso Cahill and Mrs. Charles Evans, Jr. of St. Paul's Church, Chillicothe; R. Stanley Plattenburg, of Cincinnati, and several men of the local parish.

Mrs. Evans showed and explained one of the 45 needlepoint kneeling cushions being made for St. Paul's Chapel in The Diocesan House, Cincinnati. The one exhibited is under cooperative construction by representatives of Chillicothe and Circleville parishes and bears the St. Cecilia emblem.

Dr. Plattenburg who is the Director of Christian Education for the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio, talked concerning his department and related examples to show that education is a very important activity in the life of the Church.

A substantial refund from tax stamps was turned in by Mrs. W. E. Caskey on its way to the New Organ Fund.

Mrs. Andrew Thomas, preparation Chairman for the last dinner served, reported on the proceeds and moved this go to the Organ Fund. The motion was highly favored.

To help strengthen the foundation theme of the Christian Social Relations phase of the total program, "Actions Speak Louder Than Words", contributions for the following were arranged: Missions in India, The Children's Hospital in Cincinnati, The National Church Periodical Club and New Books Fund, and The General Diocesan Missionary Supply.

Plans for the April ingathering of the United Thank Offering were explained by Mrs. Melvin Thompson, chairman.

April 9 was announced as the date for the next meeting. This will be the annual election and report session which concludes the current activity administration.

Second Asian Flu Epidemic Held Unlikely by Experts

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service feels it is unlikely — but possible — that a second epidemic wave of Asian flu will follow on the heels of the virtually ended recent outbreak.

So says Dr. William H. Stewart, assistant to Surgeon General Leroy W. Burney, in summarizing the American experience in the recent worldwide epidemic which:

Sickened millions and killed thousands throughout the world, although the death rate was very low; struck an estimated 20 million Americans, killing not less than 6,500; caused the temporary closing of hundreds of U.S. schools and cost industry a staggering total of man-hours lost.

But even if a second nationwide epidemic should occur between now and the first of May, said Stewart in an interview, the service feels it would be "relatively mild from the standpoint of the mortality being very, very low, as it has been in the recent epidemic."

"Since you can't say with certainty that a second wave will or will not occur," he said, "the wisest course is to be conservative and make your plans" on the basis of possible recurrence.

"Thus the health service is continuing to urge people who haven't already done so to get vaccinated —particularly people in the 'high risk' groups such as the chronically ill, the aged, and pregnant women," Stewart emphasized. "In these groups we are also recommending second shots for the highest individual protection."

On the unlikely side of the picture, health officials point out that despite the global scope of the recent epidemic, only one country has reported what appeared like a substantial second wave. That was in Japan, but the outbreak there has pretty well died down now.

Meanwhile, here's a rundown on the American phase of the worldwide epidemic which started in Red China last February but didn't reach the United States until June:

1. More than 20 million Americans are believed to have been affected, most of them since September, with the peak of the epidemic occurring in mid-October. This is the largest number of flu cases of any kind since the 1918 epidemic.

2. Total number of deaths has not been specifically determined, but one indication is this:

Between September and March 1, the latest statistics available 108 major cities of the United States reported 16,174 deaths from influenza and pneumonia, compared with 9,038 for the same period a year ago. The difference, health service officials say, indicates about 6,500 deaths were due to the 1957-1958 outbreak of Asian flu. Fatal cases have occurred most frequently among the aged.

3. Approximately 40 million cubic centimeters of vaccine have been used so far—indicating that at least that many persons have been vaccinated.

Ohio Underground Water Below Par

COLUMBUS (AP)—Lack of precipitation and sub-freezing temperatures combined to hold Ohio stream levels at a minimum through most of February, State Hydrologist Paul Kaser reports.

Considerable snow fell during February, but when reduced to water accounted for only about one-half of the month's total precipitation. Heavy rains in the last few days of the month prevented a record low precipitation mark.

One month of above normal precipitation and stream flow could restore underground water levels to normal, Kaser predicted. Prospects are very good that underground levels will rise in the next 30 days, he added.

EYEBROW-TWEEZING was once a great problem for spec-wearers, but it isn't any more. A new super-slim eyeglass frame makes it possible to wear glass es while shaping the brows.

Little Glasses--Big News

There's good news for girls who wear glasses in a line of little specs that do spectacular things.

One frame, for example, is so slim you can wear it while tweezing brows to see clearly what you're doing.

These small specs have other uses, too. Tiny enough to tuck in a handbag without causing clutter, they can be brought out when you have to read menus, telephone books, price tags, timetables or the like.

They're pretty, too, for frames come in clear fresh colors, including charcoal, black, airy blue, spice brown, red or orchid.

Another innovation, one for gala evenings, is a lorgnette set with rhinestones. It folds into a tiny case no bigger than the size of one lens. What fun to whip it out and gesture dramatically! It's an attention-getter!

Also novel is a decorative bit of jewelry that will prevent the question: "Where did I put my glasses?" This is a pin, a gracefully-formed metal leaf, with an inconspicuous chain suspended from it. You can hitch your glasses through this loop whenever you take them off. The chain moves with you, so spectacles can't jump out. In gold or silver, the spec caddy is a charming piece of costume jewelry for lapel or high pocket.

NOVEL FRAMES unfold and — presto! — milady has a chic lorgnette, studded with glittering stones, that's fun to use.

DECORATIVE pin with chain serves as an eyeglass caddy.

Ad 1 tablespoon grated orange rind and 1 tablespoon sugar to standard baking powder bisquits: roll 1-inch thick and cut with small cutter; if desered, dip a sugar cube quickly into orange juice and press gently into top of biscuit before baking.

Youngster Picks Prize Posey for Mom

With spring just around the corner, we heard a story typical of children and springtime we would like to pass on to you.

We didn't enter our prize King Alfred daffodil in the flower show after all.

We had planned to pick it, in all its golden glory, just a few minutes before the deadline for entries. But while I was making a last-minute search for Skippy's cap, I suggested: "You go on out in the car and wait for Mother!"

When I came out, Skippy wasn't in the car. He was in the side yard, happily collecting a bouquet of daffodils.

As I stood there in dismay, he came running to me.

"I picked these for my teacher," he explained, waving a bunch of ordinary daffodils in his fist. "But I picked the prettiest one for you, Mommy."

Then, with eyes beaming with love and pride, he handed me, as on a silver platter, the head of our prize King Alfred.

One of the local stores is offering a few new items for spring. For the teenage group, they now have anklets with the ivy league look. White socks have detachable bracets which are interchangeable in colors and patterns for every occasion. The bracets are the snap-on snap-off type for easy washing. Only 79 cents for bracets plus socks.

In the same store they now have the platter collars. They are all of the same style in white with different lace trim on each. The platter collars add to the appearance of sweaters or at the neck of plain collared dresses. Only $1.98.

While buzzing around downtown we came across some nice bargains on foam rubber bed pillows. They were of the solid piece of foam rubber of firm texture. They have a zipper coverlet which can easily be removed for laundering.

Spring being the season for many weddings, it would be nice to have a couple on hand to give as a wedding or shower gift. The price is $3 each.

If you would like further information on the items mentioned, call 1335 for details.

Man Too Talky; Florida Cops Able To Fix Ohio Arrest

TOLEDO (AP)—A 32-year-old man made one too many phone calls Wednesday to police in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

In the first call, the man said he was in a tavern and was going to surrender to Toledo police "right now" for robbing a Fort Lauderdale market two months ago.

An hour later he phoned again. One officer kept him talking while another phoned Toledo police to say:

"Get to that tavern and arrest him. He sounds like he's sobering up and he's getting cagy about just when he's going to turn himself in."

Toledo detectives found David B. Snell still chatting away on the tavern phone. They said he admitted he obtained $300 in the robbery by pretending he had a gun in his pocket.

Passenger Jet Plane Chalks Speed Record

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A jet transport plane swept across the country in 3 hours and 29 minutes Wednesday, setting an unofficial speed record for passenger-type craft, Lockheed Corp. says.

The company said its new JetStar averaged 557 m.p.h. in flying from Edwards Air Force Base on the southern California desert to Dobbins AFB in Georgia. It reached a top speed of 572 m.p.h. and an altitude of 46,000 feet on the nonstop, 1,926-mile trip.

Refrigerator cooky dough can be kept on hand for a week or more and baked as needed.

Weeky Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Many of the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood groceries will try to tempt shoppers with specials on roast beef this weekend—and it may be a foretaste of things to come for beef eaters.

Prices for sirloin and rib roast haven't come down much yet, and are even a bit higher in areas where other meats are the featured specials. But livestock men say wholesale prices have about reached their peak and gradually will decline. The drop may be as much as 20 per cent by early summer.

Corn belt farmers bought 25 per cent more cattle for feeding in January than a year ago, and bigger marketings of these grain-fed animals eventually should drive prices down.

With St. Patrick's Day coming up, some stores in metropolitan areas are offering the traditional corn beef. Cabbage, of course, is supposed to go with corn beef and the leafy vegetable fortunately is one of the best buys available among vegetables.

Spinach also is an outstanding buy. Potatoes generally are higher this week.

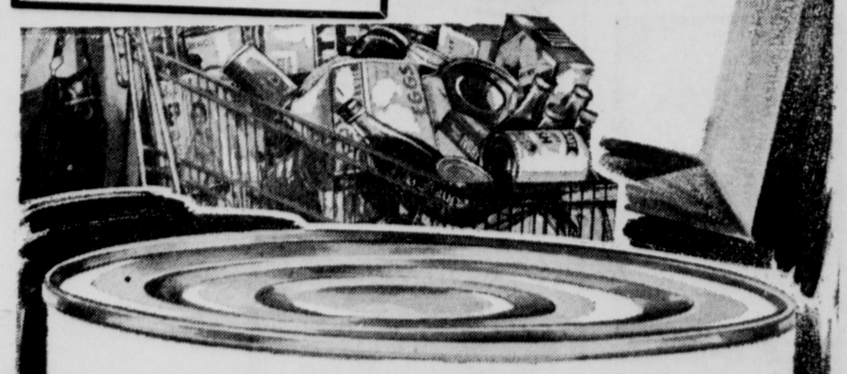

Fruit counters offer good buys in oranges and grapefruit, although produce men say some oranges show dry areas when they're cut open. This is a legacy from the freezes in Florida.

MRS. FREDA ALLENDER

Dinner and Social Session Held by Monday Club Group

Mrs. Freda Allender was the guest speaker at the annual dinner and social session of the Monday Club held Monday evening in the social rooms of the Presbyterian Church. Her subject was "You can create happiness" using as main theme the work of Walt Disney in his great accomplishment of his dream, "Disneyland".

Taking the group on an imaginary visit and tour of the fabulous Disneyland, Mrs. Allender graphically described the project from the time it was nothing but "acreage and a few houses", until it became the colorful playground it is today.

Mrs. Allender is qualified to speak from experience, for she personally trained the 600 employees of Disneyland in a series of classes that ran for three months. She also was "Mrs. Pixie" in the Santa Claus village of Sky Forest, Calif., and is currently on the weekly young people's program originated by Dr. Roy Burkhart of the First Community Church of Columbus.

A color scheme of green and yellow in spring flowers and shamrock gift baskets for each guest decorated the tables. The pre-dinner punch bowl handled by Mrs. Charles H. May. Mrs. Charles Reed gave the invocation. The dinner was served by Group A of the Presbyterian Church with the general chairman, Mrs. J. B. Stevenson to 54 guests.

Mrs. Barton Deming, president, introduced the new members, Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, Mrs. James Hodges, Mrs. Robert Moyer, Mrs. F. C. Tammany, Mrs. Homer Reber, Mrs. Kenneth Luna, Mrs. Milford Tassler, and Mrs. Robert Doherty. She introduced Mrs. Ray Davis, president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Davis spoke on the tradition of Monday Club and urged the members ot keep the spirit alive. She presented the president with a volume of the "History of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, 1924 - 54, to be turned over the the Pickaway County Library.

The program, Mrs. T. L. Huston, then introduced two musical numbers, "Oh, dear, what can the matter be?" arranged by Arthur Hall, a song popular during the time of Henry the Eighth, and "Birdsong at Eventide", by Coates, presented by the trio, Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, Mrs. James Hodtes, and Mrs. Ralph Dunkel. Mrs. Huston was the accompanist.

A pantomime "And the lamp went out" was given by Mrs. Kenneth Robbins, reader, Mrs. Robert Doherty, Mrs. Howard N. Stevenson, Mrs. Bishop Given, Mrs. Collis Young.

Prizes were won by Mrs. F. C. Tammany, Mrs. Anna Chandler, Mrs. Ione Reichelderfer, Mrs. Kenneth Luna, Mrs. Edwin Jury, Mrs. Bishop Given, Mrs. Frank Morrison and Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh.

Serving on the program committee with Mrs. Huston, were Mrs. Richard Robinson, Mrs. Harold Anderson, Mrs. George Barnes, Mrs. Earl Smith, and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson.

Consumer Loan Trend Due for Close Study

Finance Companies' Borrowing Cheap Cash; Installment Debt Cut

Editor's Note: Least hamstrung by tight money, the easy payment purchaser may respond later than most to easy money. In the following article, Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, discusses the outlook for intallment loans.

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The consumer who borrows to buy — either on the instalment plan or in a lump sum from the bank — may see little change so far under the new easier money policy. But as those who finance his purchases find a larger supply of credit to tap at lower rates, the benefits are beginning to trickle down to the on-the-cuff man.

Easy money as counter-agent to recession may have been aimed primarily at making it easier for the business man and the home builder to borrow. But the huge role of consumer in the economy and the sizable part that credit plays in today's family budgets throws a spotlight on consumer loans.

Their trend will be watched closely in the next two months by those charting the business cycle.

Tight money for months appeared to have little effect on the steady upward climb of total consumer debt. Only contraction of the repayment period did much to brake it.

"The average purchaser pays little attention to the amount of the interest charge involved in his instalment loan," says the head of one of the largest finance companies. "What he looks at is the size of the monthly payment in relation to his paycheck."

But tight money caught up with the finance companies. They have to borrow funds needed to carry your time purchases. As the supply of these available funds shrank and the interest costs climbed steadily, finance companies raised the charges for the funds they in effect lend to the car dealer or the appliance retailer to pay the manufacturer while carrying on-the-cuff customers.

In January consumers cut their outstanding instalment debt by 368 million dollars. Part of this was seasonal, part the shrinking of many incomes, but part could have been reaction to the higher costs they had to take on during the final days of tight money.

Finance companies are borrowing money much more cheaply these days. They have little trouble finding all they need.

The supply is rising from a number of sources: 1. The negative one that business is borrowing less and thus leaving more for others; 2. The added funds the federal reserve board is letting the banks have to lend; 3. The rise in savings totals.

The National Assn. of Mutual Savings Banks says deposits in the 520 banks increased 233 million dollars during January to reach a record 32 billion.

More Scholarships Urged by DiSalle

TIFFIN (AP) — More scholarships and more college facilities to provide for an anticipated doubling of the number of Ohio college students during the next decade is being urged by Michael V. DiSalle.

DiSalle, campaigning for the Democratic nomination for governor, told a group here:

"If your child flunks an early elementary grade this year, he may never get into a school of law, medicine or engineering unless we look to making improvements immediately."

He urged that the state Legislature and Board of Education give prompt consideration of the Russell Report on Ohio's needs in higher education.

5-Alarm Fire Recorded

High Court Studies Case Of Photograph

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court begins consideration today of a request by the Ohio State Bar Assn. that contempt of court proceedings be filed against a Cleveland newspaper photographer for taking pictures of the high court in action.

The pictures were taken in the courtroom without knowledge of the judges and published Monday in the Cleveland Press.

Chief Justice Weygandt said the judges will discuss the matter in a closed conference this afternoon. He said consideration of the incident by the court was postponed until Judge Thomas J. Herbert, who has been ill, returned to the bench. Judge Herbert returned to his duties Wednesday.

Attorneys said the picture-taking violates the court's Canon 35, which bans photographs and radio or television broadcasts of court proceedings.

Aronhold C. Schapiro of Portsmouth, the bar association president, urged in a letter to Judge Weygandt that the court "should appoint a committee to begin proceedings to punish the violator for contempt of the order of the court . . ."

He said that "it is the duty of our association and its membership to further the enforcement of the law and the rules of our courts."

Factory Given Demonstration

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The automatic factory has arrived, and the things it makes many include headaches for both labor and management.

Push-button production on a small scale was demonstrated here Tuesday by an aircraft company. Perforated tapes and electronics replace the human element in this system, designed to save labor.

How much labor saving the nation's economy can withstand is a question on which both company and union officials are understandibly cagey. But both concede that automation is developing far more rapidly than most people realize.

A group of newsmen saw what Hughes Aircraft Co. calls "one of the most jealously guarded industrial secrets of the West." This is a bank of machine tools designed jointly by Hughes and Kearney & Trecker Corp. of Milwaukee. The machines make parts for armament control systems.

Three machine tools—for milling, drilling and boring—operate simultaneously and automatically through an electric control panel. In the manner of old-fashioned player piano rolls, punched tapes feed specifications into computers. The computers feed the data into the machine tools.

One man, without previous machinist's training, can control the machines.

Manpower figures were conspicuously lacking, but a company spokesman said this system will save three to five times the labor and time heretofore required to produce a part or component for an aircraft or a missile.

William Brainard, chief engineer for Kearney & Trecker, said five machines in a production line could save from $150,000 to $600,000 a year, depending on the number of parts produced.

Child Mother, 10½, Baby Are Separated

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Santa Clara County juvenile authorities said today a 10-year-old child mother and her son have been placed in separate foster homes.

The baby was born Jan. 28 by Caesarian section. The girl's name has not been reported.

"She was quite childlike in her relation with the baby," said Sister Ann, a Roman Catholic nun at the hospital where the baby was born. "She thought the baby was funny and just grinned at it."

Jet's Ejection Seat Kills Civilian Worker

Glenn F. Holbert, 43, of Cedarville was killed. A co-worker, Harlan C. Eisnaugle, 37, of New Carlisle, was injured.

EYEBROW-TWEEZING was once a great problem for spec-wearers, but it isn't any more. A new super-slim eyeglass frame makes it possible to wear glass es while shaping the brows.

Little Glasses--Big News

There's good news for girls who wear glasses in a line of little specs that do spectacular things.

One frame, for example, is so slim you can wear it while tweezing brows to see clearly what you're doing.

These small specs have other uses, too. Tiny enough to tuck in a handbag without causing clutter, they can be brought out when you have to read menus, telephone books, price tags, timetables or the like.

They're pretty, too, for frames come in clear fresh colors, including charcoal, black, airy blue, spice brown, red or orchid.

Another innovation, one for gala evenings, is a lorgnette set with rhinestones. It folds into a tiny case no bigger than the size of one lens. What fun to whip it out and gesture dramatically! It's an attention-getter!

Also novel is a decorative bit of jewelry that will prevent the question: "Where did I put my glasses?" This is a pin, a gracefully-formed metal leaf, with an inconspicuous chain suspended from it. You can hitch your glasses through this loop whenever you take them off. The chain moves with you, so spectacles can't jump out. In gold or silver, the spec caddy is a charming piece of costume jewelry for lapel or high pocket.

NOVEL FRAMES unfold and — presto! — milady has a chic lorgnette, studded with glittering stones, that's fun to use.

DECORATIVE pin with chain serves as an eyeglass caddy.

Ad 1 tablespoon grated orange rind and 1 tablespoon sugar to standard baking powder bisquits; roll 1-inch thick and cut with small cutter; if desered, dip a sugar cube quickly into orange juice and press gently into top of biscuit before baking.

Youngster Picks Prize Posey for Mom

With spring just around the corner, we heard a story typical of children and springtime we would like to pass on to you.

We didn't enter our prize King Alfred daffodil in the flower show after all.

We had planned to pick it, in all its golden glory, just a few minutes before the deadline for entries. But while I was making a last-minute search for Skippy's cap, I suggested: "You go on out in the car and wait for Mother!"

When I came out, Skippy wasn't in the car. He was in the side yard, happily collecting a bouquet of daffodils.

As I stood there in dismay, he came running to me.

"I picked these for my teacher," he explained, waving a bunch of ordinary daffodils in his fist. "But I picked the prettiest one for you, Mommy."

Then, with eyes beaming with love and pride, he handed me, as on a silver platter, the head of our prize King Alfred.

One of the local stores is offering a few new items for spring. For the teenage group, they now have anklets with the ivy league look. White socks have detachable bracets which are interchangeable in colors and patterns for every occasion. The bracets are the snap-on snap-off type for easy washing. Only 79 cents for bracets plus socks.

In the same store they now have the platter collars. They are all of the same style in white with different lace trim on each. The platter collars add to the appearance of sweaters or at the neck of plain collared dresses. Only $1.98.

While buzzing around downtown we came across some nice bargains on foam rubber bed pillows. They were of the solid piece of foam rubber of firm texture. They have a zipper coverlet which can easily be removed for laundering.

Spring being the season for many weddings, it would be nice to have a couple on hand to give as a wedding or shower gift. The price is $3 each.

If you would like further information on the items mentioned, call 1335 for details.

Man Too Talky; Florida Cops Able To Fix Ohio Arrest

TOLEDO (AP)—A 32-year-old man made one too many phone calls Wednesday to police in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

In the first call, the man said he was in a tavern and was going to surrender to Toledo police "right now" for robbing a Fort Lauderdale market two months ago.

An hour later he phoned again. One officer kept him talking while another phoned Toledo police to say:

"Get to that tavern and arrest him. He sounds like he's sobering up and he's getting cagy about just when he's going to turn himself in."

Toledo detectives found David B. Snell still chatting away on the tavern phone. They said he admitted he obtained $300 in the robbery by pretending he had a gun in his pocket.

Passenger Jet Plane Chalks Speed Record

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A jet transport plane swept across the country in 3 hours and 29 minutes Wednesday, setting an unofficial speed record for passenger-type craft, Lockheed Corp. says.

The company said its new JetStar averaged 557 m.p.h. in flying from Edwards Air Force Base on the southern California desert to Dobbins AFB in Georgia. It reached a top speed of 572 m.p.h. and an altitude of 46,000 feet on the nonstop, 1,926-mile trip.

Refrigerator cooky dough can be kept on hand for a week or more and baked as needed.

Weeky Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Many of the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood groceries will try to tempt shoppers with specials on roast beef this weekend—and it may be a foretaste of things to come for beef eaters.

Prices for sirloin and rib roast haven't come down much yet, and are even a bit higher in areas where other meats are the featured specials. But livestock men say wholesale prices have about reached their peak and gradually will decline. The drop may be as much as 20 per cent by early summer.

Corn belt farmers bought 25 per cent more cattle for feeding in January than a year ago, and bigger marketings of these grain-fed animals eventually should drive prices down.

With St. Patrick's Day coming up, some stores in metropolitan areas are offering the traditional corn beef. Cabbage, of course, is supposed to go with corn beef and the leafy vegetable fortunately is one of the best buys available among vegetables.

Spinach also is an outstanding buy. Potatoes generally are higher this week.

Fruit counters offer good buys in oranges and grapefruit, although produce men say some oranges show dry areas when they're cut open. This is a legacy from the freezes in Florida.

Wall Street Journal Cites Positive Thinking Weakness

NEW YORK — The Wall Street Journal, voice of the nation's financial world whose ear is especially tuned to the current business recession, is sharply critical of "positive thinking" with regard to the U.S. economy.

The Journal raps the knuckles of those who urge a buying spree as a means to halt the recession and those who criticize newspapers for printing "bad news."

The Journal explains:

Newspaper ads in Dallas urge Texans to combat "weak and negative thinking" with "positive thinking that generates confidence and good times."

Automobile dealers in Cleveland tell people they should buy cars "to keep Cleveland business healthy."

A New York City merchandiser asks retailers around the country if they have scolded "your local newspaper publisher about his scare headlines."

Similar instances abound. Meantime the federal government, through a variety of voices, exhorts the people to get their economic chins up, while busying itself with alleged recession cures.

In other words, the American people are being told they are practically unpatriotic unless they buy regardless of need or financial condition; think any but optimistic thoughts; and, in the case of newspapers, print anything but good business news.

This curious attitude would hardly deserve comment if it were not so obviously widepsread. The fact that it is general, however, makes it no less foolish.

If a newspaper deliberately underplayed recession news it would not be worth printing or reading; by definition its function is to print what happens, and what happens to the economy is important news. That the news should be considered "bad" is immaterial; a declaration of war is automatically more newsworthy than the previous existence of peace. By the same token, when a recession has gone on for some time, any signs of a business pickup becomes in turn big news.

Beyond that, who would be fooled if newspapers tried to play Pollyanna? The American people, the would-be cheerleaders to the contrary notwithstanding, are not exactly stupid; they can read between the lines and observe for themselves.

Therein also lies the trouble with the appeals for "positive" thinking. Some souls doubtless exist who can persuade themselves, Coue-fashion, that things are getting better whether they are or not. In the same way, some people are able mentally (or politically) to transform a relatively mild recession into a Great Depression.

Most people, though, are rational enough to accept facts for what they are and act accordingly. They do not assume they are dying when they have a headache. And they do not delude themselves that a complex economic phenomenon will go away simply by thinking happy thoughts.

But perhaps the strangest train in this whole attitude is the notion that people have a duty to buy in order to bring about a quick new burst of "prosperity."

It is unquestionably true that if people did go on a buying binge it would give a big filli- to business. That is not at all the same as saying it would be an economically healthy situation. A boom so produced might well be a flash in the pan, and might well be inflationary. It could cause producers to overextend their facilities, making trouble for the future. To the extent it was at the expense of savings, it would impede the capital formation on which sound economic growth must rest.

It appears instead that the American people, having surfeited themselves with all manner of things, are taking an economic rest. And that might be a very healthy idea in the circumstances.

In any case, no question of "duty" is involved. People are under no obligation to buy a new car or anything else if they don't need it or would rather put the money in the bank. They certainly are under no obligation to keep the economy at any particular level or keep it feverishly bouncing upward from year to year with never a respite. The freedom of the people to do what they please is the essence of a free economy and a free society.

And you may be sure that in their freedom the people will in due time turn the recession around. They will do it faster the less they are stuffed with government "remedies" and the less they hear about Thinking Big.

Amish Boys Being Sought By Deputies

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies today resume the search for three Amish boys, declared truant by a Wayne County court for not attending school beyond the eighth grade.

Meanwhile, parents of the three spent the night in the county jail, held in contempt of court until the boys are delivered to custody of the county.

Deputies failed to turn up the boys—Andy Hershberger, 15; his cousin, Sammy Hershberger, 14, and Jacob Slabaugh, 14 — after hunting until Wednesday night. They called unsuccessfully on several Amish families in the area.

The parents were jailed Wednesday following a Juvenile Court hearing before visiting Judge Don Young of Norwalk, who ruled the parents were in contempt. The hearing was marked by cries of religious persecution.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hershberger, Mr. and Mrs. Eli J. Hershberger, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Slabaugh, refused to surrender their sons when the judge ordered them to do so last month.

The parents are members of a conservative Amish sect which objects to sending its children to school beyond the eighth grade in belief the children will become too worldly and shun the stern tenets of family teachings. Ohio education laws, however, specify school attendance until the age of 16.

Chicken Theft Story Is Plucked by Police

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police plucked Frank Storey's story about how he came into possession of 15 chickens from a poultry store two doors from his home.

"I was all fogged up from wine and locked myself out," he told policemen. "So I borrowed a crowbar and I guess I made a mistake in the door."

Officers figured he did, too, and filed burglary charges.

Consumer Loan Trend Due for Close Study

Finance Companies' Borrowing Cheap Cash; Installment Debt Cut

Editor's Note: Least hamstrung by tight money, the easy payment purchaser may respond later than most to easy money. In the following article, Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, discusses the outlook for intallment loans.

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The consumer who borrows to buy — either on the instalment plan or in a lump sum from the bank — may see little change so far under the new easier money policy. But as those who finance his purchases find a larger supply of credit to tap at lower rates, the benefits are beginning to trickle down to the on-the-cuff man.

Easy money as counter-agent to recession may have been aimed primarily at making it easier for the business man and the home builder to borrow. But the huge role of consumer in the economy and the sizable part that credit plays in today's family budgets throws a spotlight on consumer loans.

Their trend will be watched closely in the next two months by those charting the business cycle.

Tight money for months appeared to have little effect on the steady upward climb of total consumer debt. Only contraction of the repayment period did much to brake it.

"The average purchaser pays little attention to the amount of the interest charge involved in his instalment loan," says the head of one of the largest finance companies. "What he looks at is the size of the monthly payment in relation to his paycheck."

But tight money caught up with the finance companies. They have to borrow funds needed to carry your time purchases. As the supply of these available funds shrank and the interest costs climbed steadily, finance companies raised the charges for the funds they in effect lend to the car dealer or the appliance retailer to pay the manufacturer while carrying on-the-cuff customers.

In January consumers cut their outstanding instalment debt by 368 million dollars. Part of this was seasonal, part the shrinking of many incomes, but part could have been reaction to the higher costs they had to take on during the final days of tight money.

Finance companies are borrowing money much more cheaply these days. They have little trouble finding all they need.

The supply is rising from a number of sources: 1. The negative one that business is borrowing less and thus leaving more for others; 2. The added funds the federal reserve board is letting the banks have to lend; 3. The rise in savings totals.

The National Assn. of Mutual Savings Banks says deposits in the 520 banks increased 233 million dollars during January to reach a record 32 billion.

More Scholarships Urged by DiSalle

TIFFIN (AP) — More scholarships and more college facilities to provide for an anticipated doubling of the number of Ohio college students during the next decade is being urged by Michael V. DiSalle.

DiSalle, campaigning for the Democratic nomination for governor, told a group here:

"If your child flunks an early elementary grade this year, he may never get into a school of law, medicine or engineering unless we look to making improvements immediately."

He urged that the state Legislature and Board of Education give prompt consideration of the Russell Report on Ohio's needs in higher education.

High Court Studies Case Of Photograph

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court begins consideration today of a request by the Ohio State Bar Assn. that contempt of court proceedings be filed against a Cleveland newspaper photographer for taking pictures of the high court in action.

The pictures were taken in the courtroom without knowledge of the judges and published Monday in the Cleveland Press.

Chief Justice Weygandt said the judges will discuss the matter in a closed conference this afternoon. He said consideration of the incident by the court was postponed until Judge Thomas J. Herbert, who has been ill, returned to the bench. Judge Herbert returned to his duties Wednesday.

Attorneys said the picture-taking violates the court's Canon 35, which bans photographs and radio or television broadcasts of court proceedings.

Aronhold C. Schapiro of Portsmouth, the bar association president, urged in a letter to Judge Weygandt that the court "should appoint a committee to begin proceedings to punish the violator for contempt of the order of the court . . ."

He said that "it is the duty of our association and its membership to further the enforcement of the law and the rules of our courts."

Factory Given Demonstration

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The automatic factory has arrived, and the things it makes many include headaches for both labor and management.

Push-button production on a small scale was demonstrated here Tuesday by an aircraft company. Perforated tapes and electronics replace the human element in this system, designed to save labor.

How much labor saving the nation's economy can withstand is a question on which both company and union officials are understandably cagey. But both concede that automation is developing far more rapidly than most people realize.

A group of newsmen saw what Hughes Aircraft Co. calls "one of the most jealously guarded industrial secrets of the West." This is a bank of machine tools designed jointly by Hughes and Kearney & Trecker Corp. of Milwaukee. The machines make parts for armament control systems.

Three machine tools—for milling, drilling and boring—operate simultaneously and automatically through an electric control panel. In the manner of old-fashioned player piano rolls, punched tapes feed specifications into computers. The computers feed the data into the machine tools.

One man, without previous machinist's training, can control the machines.

Manpower figures were conspicuously lacking, but a company spokesman said this system will save three to five times the labor and time heretofore required to produce a part or component for an aircraft or a missile.

William Brainard, chief engineer for Kearney & Trecker, said five machines in a production line could save from $150,000 to $600,000 a year, depending on the number of parts produced.

Child Mother, 10½, Baby Are Separated

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Santa Clara County juvenile authorities said today a 10-year-old child mother and her son have been placed in separate foster homes.

The baby was born Jan. 28 by Caesarian section. The girl's name has not been reported.

"She was quite childlike in her relation with the baby," said Sister Ann, a Roman Catholic nun at the hospital where the baby was born. "She thought the baby was funny and just grinned at it."

Jet's Ejection Seat Kills Civilian Worker

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Our neighbors are nice but we have a baffling situation. Their children enter our house without knocking or ringing the bell.

We have a baby, 11 months old, and they have slipped in and tormented her, yanking her hair, pinching her face, then running away.

Until yesterday I had said nothing to their mother of this, since in the past she has implied disapproval of certain actions of our older children. (I questioned my children afterwards and administered punishment as deserved.)

But the latest hair pulling brought me flying. I picked up the offender — this was his third or fourth offense—carried him across the yard and deposited him inside his own fence. His mother came out to ask what was wrong and when I told her, she paddled him. Now she has curtailed the usual play between her children and my 3-year-old.

I don't want her to feel that her children aren't welcome to play in our yard; or that I think my child rearing methods are better than hers. I haven't touched her children, except to put the youngster over the fence, as said. Yet she seems to feel antagonistic.

We live between two related families; and the young cousins have pitted our children against each other, and the other cousins. One of the cousins' untruths to her parents and other kin have caused us much unpleasantness; and this same cousin introduced our older girls to smoking last summer.

We are proud of our children. They are healthy, with good minds and a fine family spirit. We are teaching them honesty, gentleness and loyalty. As with all children, ours are sometimes naughty, other times surprisingly nice.

How do I cope with the neighbors? Am I in error? Or are they? I must take a fair stand and abide by it.

F.S.

DEAR F.S.: It is my conviction that a housewife and mother is custodian of the peace in her own domain—in governing the activities of children under her roof.

Thus I feel that you are wholly responsible for guarding the comfort and physical security of your infant daughter. And if neighbor children of runabout age habitually sneak in and torment her, as a cruel pastime, you are somehow at fault for this.

You are supposed to use your common sense as an adult, to keep mischievous children in line—with a blend of authority, fast thinking, and preventive arrangements that they can't surmount.

Where do you keep the baby during the day? — that brats can get at her behind your back, time and again? During her play time, if she is confined to a pen, the pen should be within your sight and quick reach as you do your chores.

During her nap time, if you prefer to enclose her in the quiet of a bedroom, be sure to close and latch the door— with a latch affixed high up, out of young children's reach, even if they stand on a chair. However, by using a smallish wheeled crib, the baby might be near you even during naps — as the contraption moves easily from room to room. And well loved babies sleep soundly in the midst of household bustle, if mothers like having them at hand.

Another safety measure is to foster some visiting time between the neighbors' young children and your baby, if the baby is an object of interest to them. Maybe they hairpull and pinch the baby to waken her, or to get a reaction from her, to feel her "aliveness" —as a primitive effort to establish communication.

Finally, my theory of child management is to deal promptly with trespassers who offend in your domain. In the case of the neighbor child, finally caught in the act of pinching your baby, he might have been briskly spanked on the spot and sharply chided—with his error emphasized. Then offered a cookie, to signify your underlying friendship despite his mistake; and escorted home—with a brief statement to his mama about what had transpired.

M.H.

Endocrine Gland Treatment Seen Improving Character

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Someday you may wake up after a minor operation and find yourself the kind of person you've always wanted to be.

"We are, to a large extent, what our endocrine glands make us," Dr. Francisco Grana said. "Surgical stimulation of the endocrine glands, correction of certain imbalances that exist in all of us, may someday lead the human race to perfection."

Dr. Grana is professor of surgery at San Marcos University in Lima, Peru, the oldest medical school in the Western Hemisphere. He is here to address the 11th biennial Congress of the International College of Surgeons.

"There is hope even today that surgical modification of endocrine glands may lead to the cure of cancer," he told an interviewer.

"We know that there is some connection between the endocrine system and cancer. It does little good in most cases to simply remove the cancerous organ. The real answer, we believe now, lies in the chemistry of the human body. A healthy body does not have cancer. If we restore the endocrine glands to proper functioning, it may be that we will end cancer forever."

The endocrine glands are a system of chemical factories in the head and body which release secretions into the blood. These secretions control growth and well-being by their effect on the various functions of the body.

"A minor, very delicate operation can change the amount of secretion these glands produce," Dr. Grana said. "Underactive glands can be made to produce more. Overactive glands can be brought under control."

Wall Street Journal Cites Positive Thinking Weakness

NEW YORK — The Wall Street Journal, voice of the nation's financial world whose ear is especially tuned to the current business recession, is sharply critical of "positive thinking" with regard to the U.S. economy.

The Journal raps the knuckles of those who urge a buying spree as a means to halt the recession and those who criticize newspapers for printing "bad news."

The Journal explains:

Newspaper ads in Dallas urge Texans to combat "weak and negative thinking" with "positive thinking that generates confidence and good times."

Automobile dealers in Cleveland tell people they should buy cars "to keep Cleveland business healthy."

A New York City merchandiser asks retailers around the country if they have scolded "your local newspaper publisher about his scare headlines."

Similar instances abound. Meantime the federal government, through a variety of voices, exhorts the people to get their economic chins up, while busying itself with alleged recession cures.

In other words, the American people are being told they are practically unpatriotic unless they buy regardless of need or financial condition; think any but optimistic thoughts; and, in the case of newspapers, print anything but good business news.

This curious attitude would hardly deserve comment if it were not so obviously widepsread. The fact that it is general, however, makes it no less foolish.

If a newspaper deliberately underplayed recession news it would not be worth printing or reading; by definition its function is to print what happens, and what happens to the economy is important news. That the news should be considered "bad" is immaterial; a declaration of war is automatically more newsworthy than the previous existence of peace. By the same token, when a recession has gone on for some time, any signs of a business pickup becomes in turn big news.

Beyond that, who would be fooled if newspapers tried to play Pollyanna? The American people, the would-be cheerleaders to the contrary notwithstanding, are not exactly stupid; they can read between the lines and observe for themselves.

Therein also lies the trouble with the appeals for "positive" thinking. Some souls doubtless exist who can persuade themselves, Coue-fashion, that things are getting better whether they are or not. In the same way, some people are able mentally (or politically) to transform a relatively mild recession into a Great Depression.

Most people, though, are rational enough to accept facts for what they are and act accordingly. They do not assume they are dying when they have a headache. And they do not delude themselves that a complex economic phenomenon will go away simply by thinking happy thoughts.

But perhaps the strangest train in this whole attitude is the notion that people have a duty to buy in order to bring about a quick new burst of "prosperity."

It is unquestionably true that if people did go on a buying binge it would give a big filli- to business. That is not at all the same as saying it would be an economically healthy situation. A boom so produced might well be a flash in the pan, and might well be inflationary. It could cause producers to overextend their facilities, making trouble for the future. To the extent it was at the expense of savings, it would impede the capital formation on which sound economic growth must rest.

It appears instead that the American people, having surfeited themselves with all manner of things, are taking an economic rest. And that might be a very healthy idea in the circumstances.

In any case, no question of "duty" is involved. People are under no obligation to buy a new car or anything else if they don't need it or would rather put the money in the bank. They certainly are under no obligation to keep the economy at any particular level or keep it feverishly bouncing upward from year to year with never a respite. The freedom of the people to do what they please is the essence of a free economy and a free society.

And you may be sure that in their freedom the people will in due time turn the recession around. They will do it faster the less they are stuffed with government "remedies" and the less they hear about Thinking Big.

Amish Boys Being Sought By Deputies

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies today resume the search for three Amish boys, declared truant by a Wayne County court for not attending school beyond the eighth grade.

Meanwhile, parents of the three spent the night in the county jail, held in contempt of court until the boys are delivered to custody of the county.

Deputies failed to turn up the boys—Andy Hershberger, 15; his cousin, Sammy Hershberger, 14, and Jacob Slabaugh, 14 — after hunting until Wednesday night. They called unsuccessfully on several Amish families in the area.

The parents were jailed Wednesday following a Juvenile Court hearing before visiting Judge Don Young of Norwalk, who ruled the parents were in contempt. The hearing was marked by cries of religious persecution.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hershberger, Mr. and Mrs. Eli J. Hershberger, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Slabaugh, refused to surrender their sons when the judge ordered them to do so last month.

The parents are members of a conservative Amish sect which objects to sending its children to school beyond the eighth grade in belief the children will become too worldly and shun the stern tenets of family teachings. Ohio education laws, however, specify school attendance until the age of 16.

Chicken Theft Story Is Plucked by Police

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police plucked Frank Storey's story about how he came into possession of 15 chickens from a poultry store two doors from his home.

"I was all fogged up from wine and locked myself out," he told policemen. "So I borrowed a crowbar and I guess I made a mistake in the door."

Officers figured he did, too, and filed burglary charges.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Our neighbors are nice but we have a baffling situation. Their children enter our house without knocking or ringing the bell.

We have a baby, 11 months old, and they have slipped in and tormented her, yanking her hair, pinching her face, then running away.

Until yesterday I had said nothing to their mother of this, since in the past she has implied disapproval of certain actions of our older children. (I questioned my children afterwards and administered punishment as deserved.)

But the latest hair pulling brought me flying. I picked up the offender — this was his third or fourth offense—carried him across the yard and deposited him inside his own fence. His mother came out to ask what was wrong and when I told her, she paddled him. Now she has curtailed the usual play between her children and my 3-year-old.

I don't want her to feel that her children aren't welcome to play in our yard; or that I think my child rearing methods are better than hers. I haven't touched her children, except to put the youngster over the fence, as said. Yet she seems to feel antagonistic.

We live between two related families; and the young cousins have pitted our children against each other, and the other cousins. One of the cousins' untruths to her parents and other kin have caused us much unpleasantness; and this same cousin introduced our older girls to smoking last summer.

We are proud of our children. They are healthy, with good minds and a fine family spirit. We are teaching them honesty, gentleness and loyalty. As with all children, ours are sometimes naughty, other times surprisingly nice.

How do I cope with the neighbors? Am I in error? Or are they? I must take a fair stand and abide by it.

F.S.

DEAR F.S.: It is my conviction that a housewife and mother is custodian of the peace in her own domain—in governing the activities of children under her roof.

Thus I feel that you are wholly responsible for guarding the comfort and physical security of your infant daughter. And if neighbor children of runabout age habitually sneak in and torment her, as a cruel pastime, you are somehow at fault for this.

You are supposed to use your common sense as an adult, to keep mischievous children in line—with a blend of authority, fast thinking, and preventive arrangements that they can't surmount.

Where do you keep the baby during the day? — that brats can get at her behind your back, time and again? During her play time, if she is confined to a pen, the pen should be within your sight and quick reach as you do your chores.

During her nap time, if you prefer to enclose her in the quiet of a bedroom, be sure to close and latch the door— with a latch affixed high up, out of young children's reach, even if they stand on a chair. However, by using a smallish wheeled crib, the baby might be near you even during naps — as the contraption moves easily from room to room. And well loved babies sleep soundly in the midst of household bustle, if mothers like having them at hand.

Another safety measure is to foster some visiting time between the neighbors' young children and your baby, if the baby is an object of interest to them. Maybe they hairpull and pinch the baby to waken her, or to get a reaction from her, to feel her "aliveness" —as a primitive effort to establish communication.

Finally, my theory of child management is to deal promptly with trespassers who offend in your domain. In the case of the neighbor child, finally caught in the act of pinching your baby, he might have been briskly spanked on the spot and sharply chided—with his error emphasized. Then offered a cookie, to signify your underlying friendship despite his mistake; and escorted home—with a brief statement to his mama about what had transpired.

M.H.

Endocrine Gland Treatment Seen Improving Character

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Someday you may wake up after a minor operation and find yourself the kind of person you've always wanted to be.

"We are, to a large extent, what our endocrine glands make us," Dr. Francisco Grana said. "Surgical stimulation of the endocrine glands, correction of certain imbalances that exist in all of us, may someday lead the human race to perfection."

Dr. Grana is professor of surgery at San Marcos University in Lima, Peru, the oldest medical school in the Western Hemisphere. He is here to address the 11th biennial Congress of the International College of Surgeons.

"There is hope even today that surgical modification of endocrine glands may lead to the cure of cancer," he told an interviewer.

"We know that there is some connection between the endocrine system and cancer. It does little good in most cases to simply remove the cancerous organ. The real answer, we believe now, lies in the chemistry of the human body. A healthy body does not have cancer. If we restore the endocrine glands to proper functioning, it may be that we will end cancer forever."

The endocrine glands are a system of chemical factories in the head and body which release secretions into the blood. These secretions control growth and well-being by their effect on the various functions of the body.

"A minor, very delicate operation can change the amount of secretion these glands produce," Dr. Grana said. "Underactive glands can be made to produce more. Overactive glands can be brought under control."

Warren County Gets Brand New Village

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio has a brand new village.

Carlisle in Warren County obtained incorporation papers from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown here Wednesday.

The incorporation boosted to 773 the total of incorporated villages in Ohio. The papers failed to show Carlisle's present population.

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—The basketball coach of North Lima High School, Richard Williams, has filed an assault and battery charge against John L. Houser, father of one of the school's cheerleaders.

Ashville Puts Three on All-Star Team

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Johnson Is Named To SCOL Honor Team

Bill Johnson, Circleville High School's ace cager this season, was named to the mythical South Central Ohio League All - Star team.

Johnson, 6-3 forward, was a unanimous choice in the voting by coaches of the SCOL. The selection was made during a league meeting held last night at Wilmington.

Circleville reaped more honors by placing guard Mike Hosler and Center Jon Parcher on the second team All-Star five. Both were top choices in the second team voting.

Honorable mention on the star-studded squad went to senior John Wright and Junior Don Rowland, both CHS mainstays during the season.

ALONG with Johnson on the classy first team were Steve Rainer, Wilmington's fine performer, Tom Swaim of Washington C. H., an all-around cager, Milt Bosworth, Hillsboro's dependable forward and top scorer, and Dave Nared, another Wilmington stalwart.

This selection represents the cream of SCOL basketball, a team any coach would be proud to tutor.

Bracing Hosler and Parcher on the second five were Dick Miller of Hillsboro, Howard Barns of Wilmington, and Jim Polk of Greenfield.

The league championship this year went to Wilmington and Washington C. H., each with 6-2 league records. Circleville ended second with an even 4-4 record. One of the Tiger wins was a victory over co-champs Washington C. H.

Circleville was represented at the meeting by Superintendent of Schools George Hartman, Principal J. Wray Henry, Coaches Tom Bennett, Dick Boyd, John Current and Dick Fisher and Faculty Manager Gordon Anderson.

Business and athletic group meetings were preceded by a delicious dinner prepared and served by women and girls of Wilmington High School.

LEAGUE baseball coaches recommended that their games start this season at 4:30 p. m. Track coaches set a tentative meeting for April 29 at Washington C. H. and decided that the league meet this year will be held May 7 at Franklin Heights, Columbus.

A trophy committee, headed by football coach Fred Dominico of Washington C. H., reported that the league will present standard trophies for loop sports in the future.

The coaches also agreed to a method of handling sports publicity. Dick Boyd of Circleville will handle basketball, Stan McCoy of Wilmington football, Herb Russell of Washington C. H. baseball, and Tom Elliot of Franklin Heights, track.

Here is the All-Star cage selection:

A "dream team" any cage coach would desire takes the spotlight today. It combines height, speed, heart and shooting ability. It's the 1958 Circleville Herald All-County squad.

The All-Star team, selected by The Circleville Herald sports department, represents the flower of Pickaway County basketball this season. The selection was a hard one to make due to an overflow of fine cage talent in the county.

Ashville, winner of the Pickaway County tournament and second in league play, paced the selection with three players, one on the first team and two on the second. Darby, league winners, placed one player on the first team and one on the second.

The first All-Star five is paced by Dick Hoover, this year's Bob Bowsher trophy winner. Rounding out the mythical five is Ronnie Gutheil, Darby's fine center, John Lininger of New Holland who is one of the smoothest cagers in the county, Roger Knapp, Scioto's scoring whiz, and Danny Slone, Walnut's bread and butter man all season.

* * *

SECOND team berths went to Bob Hoover, Ashville's talent-loaded sophomore center, Gary Valentine, Saltcreek's dependable left handed junior, Eddie James of Williamsport who excells as a floor and team man, Junior Shillingburg, Ashville's adept ball handler and set shot artist, and Tommy Walters, Darby's sensational young sophomore guard.

Dick Hoover, a strapping 6-2 senior, was Ashville's driving artist who was an able rebounder and equally adept at rounding the corners and meshing an accurate jump shot. Hoover, a senior, averaged 14.6 points per game.

Gutheil was the ace scorer for league champion Darby, averaging 19.9 points per game. He was an ideal jump shot artist who was unstoppable when he broke loose and leaped in the air with a deadly back-away jump. Gutheil, a senior stood 6-4 and had the big build to go with a rugged frame.

Lininger, the clever New Holland center, averaged 20.3 per game. A 6' 2½" senior center for the Bulldogs, he was one of the smoother ball players in the county who almost always ended up in the double figure column. John especially was rugged under the bucket and was a solid rebounder who maintained his own in any game he played.

Knapp, Scioto Twp. senior, was the county's leading scorer with a season average of 23.2 points per game. He was feared throughout the season for his scoring ability and ever dangerous driving. The 5-6 guard was double - teammed most of the year and still managed to tally in the 20's which forced an opponent's defense to spread out.

Rounding out the first five is Walnut's outstanding guard, Danny Slone. Danny was one of brightest stars on coach Tom Bryant's quintet after four of five early season starters quit the squad. A 6 foot senior, he was left with the burden of carrying Walnut's attack the remainder of the year and did a fine job. The ever dangerous cager had a terrific driving side court shot and was a team leader.

* * *

HEADLINING the second five is Williamsport's Eddie James, who was difficult to keep off the top five. James, a miniature 5-5 foot senior kept together the team play Williamsport had to offer and played his heart out in every game. He cared little for scoring points, but had the team uppermost on his mind and the desire to win no matter who was the hero. James averaged 12.2 points per game for the year and excelled in tournament play when he did everything except lead cheers in the Deer's tourney loss to Ashville.

Senior Larry Shillingburg, an Ashville mainstay at guard was instrumental in the points scored by the Hoover brothers. A 5-6 demon, he was one of the slickest ball handlers in the county and was the player who paced the Broncos on their 13 game winning streak. One unusual fact about Larry is that he was a varsity player for three years, but never played in a tournament final's game. Each time he was either ill or injured.

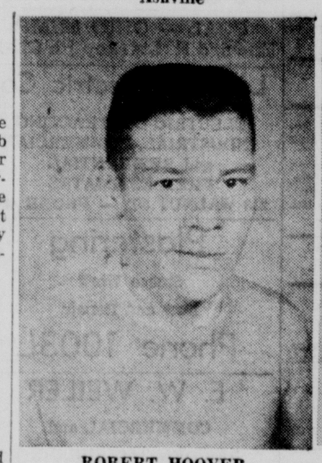

Valentine, the 6-1 Saltcreek Warrior, was the only junior to make the top ten. He was coach Bob Sanders most reliable pointmaker and came through with ease, averaging 19 points a game. Valentine was considered one of smoothest competitors in Pickaway County and for a youngster had exceptional skill in handling himself.

Ashville's third member of the top 10 is Bob Hoover. The 6-3 inch sophomore probably was the toughest county cager under the bucket. He and brother Dick, made a potent rebounding combination. Bob was Ashville's leading scorer with a 17.1 average.

Walters, 5-7 guard, improved with every game until by tournament time opposing teams were more concerned with his ball handling ability than the Trojans' offensive attack. He was Darby's fancy dribbler who was hard to stop. The young sophomore took complete charge in several of Darby's latter season games to lead the Trojans to victory. Walters was Darby's backcourt general and fed his three forward men with expert finesse and accuracy.

The honorable mention list also represents the finest basketball players in the county. Many of the cagers on this list were top contenders for first and second team honors. They are:

Dave Myers (soph.) and Nick Stonerock (Sr) Williamsport; sport; Chrlie Galloway (Jr.) Jackson; Dickie Melvin (Jr.) and Gary Clark (Soph.) Scioto; Ned Musselman (Sr.) and John Drummond (Jr.) Darby; Eddie Evans (Sr.) Pickaway; Larry Bigham (Soph.) Monroe; Gerald Gerhardt (Sr.) Atlanta; Lindell Bell (Sr.) Walnut; Kenny Speakman (Sr.) New Holland; and Ron Bartholomew (Sr.) Ashville.

Cage Tourneys Feeling March Madness Now

NIT Takes Spotlight With Play Opening In Gotham Garden

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Basketball's March madness reaches its wackiest peak tonight with the NIT busting in on the NCAA big college, NCAA small college, and the NAIA in the alphabetical battle for national tournament honors.

The National Invitation Tournament, a 12-team affair, opens at New York's Madison Square Garden with two of four first-round games: St. John's of New York (16-6) vs. Butler (16-9) and St. Joseph's of Philadelphia (17-8) vs. St. Peter's of New Jersey (20-3).

The NCAA Small College Tournament reaches the semifinal stage at Evansville, Ind., with defending champion Wheaton of Illinois playing South Dakota (the club it bounced in the semis a year ago), and host Evansville meeting St. Michaels of Vermont.

The NAIA Tournament at Kansas City heads into the quarterfinals with these pairing: Tennessee State vs. East Texas, Western Illinois vs. Youngstown (Ohio), Coe (Iowa) vs. Texas Southern, and West Virginia Wesleyan vs. Georgetown (Ky.).

And the NCAA Tournament for the big schools, under way since Monday, regroups for regionals at Charlotte, N.C.; Lexington, Ky.; Lawrence, Kan.; and San Francisco starting Friday after Idaho State and Seattle won the last of the first-round games.

Seattle, with All America Elgin Baylor scoring 26 points and dabbling in playmaking too, crushed Wyoming's Skyline Conference champions 88-51 in the second game of a double-header at Berkeley, Calif. Idaho State's Rocky Mountain champions downed the Border champs, Arizona State of Tempe, 72-68, in the first game. The winners advance to the Far West NCAA regional at San Francisco Friday night.

Baylor's 26 points dipped his season average to 33.3 compared with 34.5 for Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, the national leader.

Friday, Seattle plays San Francisco and Idaho State faces California.

All set for Friday's other big NCAA games are Maryland vs. Temple and Manhattan vs. Dartmouth at Charlotte, Kentucky vs. Miami of Ohio and Notre Dame vs. Indiana at Lexington, Ky., and Oklahoma State vs. Arkansas and (the one everybody's waiting' to see) Cincinnati vs. Kansas State at Lawrence, Kan.

Butler, competing in its first NIT, won 11 of its last 13 games.

The St. John's-Butler winner will play fourth-seeded Utah Saturday afternoon after Niagara meets Xavier of Ohio in a first round game.

Top-seeded Dayton and second-seeded Bradley will not see action until next Tuesday night. Bradley's defending champions will battle the Niagara-Xavier winner and Dayton goes against the Fordham-St. Francis survivor of Saturday night.

Semifinal NIT games will be played Thursday night, March 20 and the championship game, Saturday afternoon, March 22.

Unseeded 5s Advance in NAIA Tourney

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Three unseeded and generally overlooked entries battled their way into tonight's quarterfinal round of the National Intercollegiate (NAIA) basketball tournament.

The Georgetown (Ky.) College Tigers, who upset Pacific Lutheran 92-91 in overtime Wednesday night in the best game of the tournament thus far, Coe College of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Texas Southern of Houston, are the surprise teams.

Either Coe or Texas Southern will have to go tonight. They meet in the opening game.

Georgetown will have a rugged foe in 5th-seeded West Virginia Wesleyan in the final game.

The top-seeded Western Illinois Leathernecks, who had all sorts of trouble outlasting Pasadena (Calif.) College, 83-80, go up against Youngstown (Ohio) University in the second game. Youngstown, seeded No. 8, overpowered Platteville (Wis.) Teachers, 74-63, in the second round.

Defending champion Tennessee State of Nashville, seeded No. 3, and East Texas State of Commerce, seeded No. 7, meet in tonight's third game.

Texas Southern gained the quarterfinals by beating Drury College of Springfield, Mo., 91-61 and Coe ran away from Western Montana 103-69.

Tennessee State's blistering speed burned up Anderson (Ind.) College 77-56. Methodical East Texas started slow and finished fast to oust Northern State of Aberdeen, S. D., 63-57.

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — A golf pro who never before had seen the course was the favorite as play started in the $15,000 Pensacola Open tournament today.

He is Ken Venturi, the hottest player on the winter tournament circuit with three victories and top 1958 earnings. The young San Francisco star has won five titles and about $40,000 since he became a professional 15 months ago.

The 26-year-old pro lost a sudden-death playoff Wednesday to Bill Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., in the New Orleans Open.

NCAA Cage Play Nears Semifinals

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — A poised, well-balanced Wheaton College team takes on dangerous South Dakota, and host Evansville meets sharp-shooting St. Michael's in tonight's semifinals of the NCAA college basketball tourney.

Wheaton's defending champions moved through Wednesday's quarterfinal opener of the meet in Roberts Memorial Stadium with an 81-64 decision over Chapman of Orange, Calif., smallest school in the field with a 300 enrollment.

The lead switched 16 times in the first half before Wheaton broke the game open with a 14 point surge in the first 7 minutes after intermission. From then on, it was a rout as the Crusaders chalked their 22nd straight victory.

South Dakota, swinging along on an 18-game winning skein, will be seeking a measure of revenge from the Illinois team. Wheaton knocked the Coyotes out of the semifinals last year, 90-80.

In Wednesday's second game, South Dakota snapped a tie in the last four minutes with seven free throws to defeat Southwest Missouri State 63-58.

Evansville College's Aces surged in the final 10 minutes to trim American University of Washington, D. C., 82-72.

New Gallia County Lake Draws Nearer To Building Time

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Division of Wildlife says Tycoon Lake, a proposed 140-acre body of water in Gallia County, is a step nearer reality.

B. K. Jones, chairman of the wildlife council, reports the council has approved an option on the last parcel of land at the site involving a total of 675 acres. "This would leave 535 acres of land around the lake for public hunting," he said.

The last parcel, 16 acres, cost the division $2,500. Investment in the project thus far is about $76,000 in land acquisition alone.

Construction of the dam to impound the lake is expected to begin this year. Tycoon Lake will be situated about 11 miles north of Gallipolis, nestled in the southern Ohio hills.

In other land purchase approvals, the council approved an option on 98 acres in Trumbull County, site of the Grand River Wildlife Area, and 51 acres in Jackson County for the Cooper Hollow Wildlife Area.

More Teams Advance in Cage Playoff

COLUMBUS (AP)—Columbus East and Cuyahoga Falls sit back tonight and wait to see what high school teams they meet in the regional basketball finals at Berea and Kent.

Columbus East, paced by Mel Nowell's 22 points, edged Cleveland Cathedral Latin out of the state tournament Wednesday night 61-59. The Tigers, now 18-5, will meet the winner of tonight's Cleveland East Tech-Elyria battle Saturday for the right to advance to the state finals.

Latin last year was the No. 1 team in the Associated Press' final high school poll. They went to the finals but were downed by Kent Roosevelt 62-54.

Columbus East also isn't a newcomer to the select few. East won the state crown in 1951.

The other team to move one step closer to the finals next week was Cuyahoga Falls, with a 59-55 victory over Wooster.

Cuyahoga Falls will face the winner of tonight's Zanesville-Akron St. Vincent game in the regional finals at Kent Saturday.

Zanesville, ranked No. 3 behind Middletown and Cleveland East Tech, has won the state title twice, in 1926 and 1955.

Class A regional action gets underway tonight in Athens where Centralia (19-5) runs into Maysville (24-1).

Laurelville AC Slates Wrestling

Ashville Puts Three on All-Star Team

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Johnson Is Named To SCOL Honor Team

Bill Johnson, Circleville High School's ace cager this season, was named to the mythical South Central Ohio League All - Star team.

Johnson, 6-3 forward, was a unanimous choice in the voting by coaches of the SCOL. The selection was made during a league meeting held last night at Wilmington.

Circleville reaped more honors by placing guard Mike Hosler and Center Jon Parcher on the second team All-Star five. Both were top choices in the second team voting.

Honorable mention on the star-studded squad went to senior John Wright and Junior Don Rowland, both CHS mainstays during the season.

ALONG with Johnson on the classy first team were Steve Rainer, Wilmington's fine performer, Tom Swaim of Washington C. H., an all-around cager, Milt Bosworth, Hillsboro's dependable forward and top scorer, and Dave Nared, another Wilmington stalwart.

This selection represents the cream of SCOL basketball, a team any coach would be proud to tutor.

Bracing Hosler and Parcher on the second five were Dick Miller of Hillsboro, Howard Barns of Wilmington, and Jim Polk of Greenfield.

The league championship this year went to Wilmington and Washington C. H., each with 6-2 league records. Circleville ended second with an even 4-4 record. One of the Tiger wins was a victory over co-champs Washington C. H.

Circleville was represented at the meeting by Superintendent of Schools George Hartman, Principal J. Wray Henry, Coaches Tom Bennett, Dick Boyd, John Current and Dick Fisher and Faculty Manager Gordon Anderson.

Business and athletic group meetings were preceded by a delicious dinner prepared and served by women and girls of Wilmington High School.

LEAGUE baseball coaches recommended that their games start this season at 4:30 p. m. Track coaches set a tentative meeting for April 29 at Washington C. H. and decided that the league meet this year will be held May 7 at Franklin Heights, Columbus.

A trophy committee, headed by football coach Fred Dominico of Washington C. H., reported that the league will present standard trophies for loop sports in the future.

The coaches also agreed to a method of handling sports publicity. Dick Boyd of Circleville will handle basketball, Stan McCoy of Wilmington football, Herb Russell of Washington C. H. baseball, and Tom Elliot of Franklin Heights, track.

Here is the All-Star cage selection:

A "dream team" any cage coach would desire takes the spotlight today. It combines height, speed, heart and shooting ability. It's the 1958 Circleville Herald All-County squad.

The All-Star team, selected by The Circleville Herald sports department, represents the flower of Pickaway County basketball this season. The selection was a hard one to make due to an overflow of fine cage talent in the county.

Ashville, winner of the Pickaway County tournament and second in league play, paced the selection with three players, one on the first team and two on the second. Darby, league winners, placed one player on the first team and one on the second.

The first All-Star five is paced by Dick Hoover, this year's Bob Bowsher trophy winner. Rounding out the mythical five is Ronnie Gutheil, Darby's fine center, John Lininger of New Holland who is one of the smoothest cagers in the county, Roger Knapp, Scioto's scoring whiz, and Danny Slone, Walnut's bread and butter man all season.

* * *

SECOND team berths went to Bob Hoover, Ashville's talent-loaded sophomore center, Gary Valentine, Saltcreek's dependable left handed junior, Eddie James of Williamsport who excells as a floor and team man, Junior Shillingburg, Ashville's adept ball handler and set shot artist, and Tommy Walters, Darby's sensational young sophomore guard.

Dick Hoover, a strapping 6-2 senior, was Ashville's driving artist who was an able rebounder and equally adept at rounding the corners and meshing an accurate jump shot. Hoover, a senior, averaged 14.6 points per game.

Gutheil was the ace scorer for league champion Darby, averaging 19.9 points per game. He was an ideal jump shot artist who was unstoppable when he broke loose and leaped in the air with a deadly back-away jump. Gutheil, a senior stood 6-4 and had the big build to go with a rugged frame.

Lininger, the clever New Holland center, averaged 20.3 per game. A 6' 2½" senior center for the Bulldogs, he was one of the smoother ball players in the county who almost always ended up in the double figure column. John especially was rugged under the bucket and was a solid rebounder who maintained his own in any game he played.

Knapp, Scioto Twp. senior, was the county's leading scorer with a season average of 23.2 points per game. He was feared throughout the season for his scoring ability and ever dangerous driving. The 5-6 guard was double - teammed most of the year and still managed to tally in the 20's which forced an opponent's defense to spread out.

Rounding out the first five is Walnut's outstanding guard, Danny Slone. Danny was one of brightest stars on coach Tom Bryant's quintet after four of five early season starters quit the squad. A 6 foot senior, he was left with the burden of carrying Walnut's attack the remainder of the year and did a fine job. The ever dangerous cager had a terrific driving side court shot and was a team leader.

* * *

HEADLINING the second five is Williamsport's Eddie James, who was difficult to keep off the top five. James, a miniature 5-5 foot senior kept together the team play Williamsport had to offer and played his heart out in every game. He cared little for scoring points, but had the team uppermost on his mind and the desire to win no matter who was the hero. James averaged 12.2 points per game for the year and excelled in tournament play when he did everything except lead cheers in the Deer's tourney loss to Ashville.

Senior Larry Shillingburg, an Ashville mainstay at guard was instrumental in the points scored by the Hoover brothers. A 5-6 demon, he was one of the slickest ball handlers in the county and was the player who paced the Broncos on their 13 game winning streak. One unusual fact about Larry is that he was a varsity player for three years, but never played in a tournament final's game. Each time he was either ill or injured.

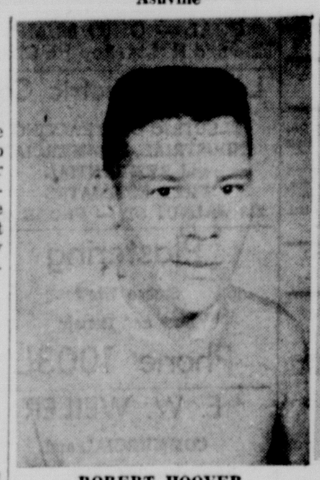

Valentine, the 6-1 Saltcreek Warrior, was the only junior to make the top ten. He was coach Bob Sanders most reliable pointmaker and came through with ease, averaging 19 points a game. Valentine was considered one of smoothest competitors in Pickaway County and for a youngster had exceptional skill in handling himself.

Ashville's third member of the top 10 is Bob Hoover. The 6-3 inch sophomore probably was the toughest county cager under the bucket. He and brother Dick, made a potent rebounding combination. Bob was Ashville's leading scorer with a 17.1 average.

Walters, 5-7 guard, improved with every game until by tournament time opposing teams were more concerned with his ball handling ability than the Trojans' offensive attack. He was Darby's fancy dribbler who was hard to stop. The young sophomore took complete charge in several of Darby's latter season games to lead the Trojans to victory. Walters was Darby's backcourt general and fed his three forward men with expert finesse and accuracy.

The honorable mention list also represents the finest basketball players in the county. Many of the cagers on this list were top contenders for first and second team honors. They are:

Dave Myers (soph.) and Nick Stonerock (Sr) Williamsport; sport; Chrlie Galloway (Jr.) Jackson; Dickie Melvin (Jr.) and Gary Clark (Soph.) Scioto; Ned Musselman (Sr.) and John Drummond (Jr.) Darby; Eddie Evans (Sr.) Pickaway; Larry Bigham (Soph.) Monroe; Gerald Gerhardt (Sr.) Atlanta; Lindell Bell (Sr.) Walnut; Kenny Speakman (Sr.) New Holland; and Ron Bartholomew (Sr.) Ashville.

Cage Tourneys Feeling March Madness Now

NIT Takes Spotlight With Play Opening In Gotham Garden

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Basketball's March madness reaches its wackiest peak tonight with the NIT busting in on the NCAA big college, NCAA small college, and the NAIA in the alphabetical battle for national tournament honors.

The National Invitation Tournament, a 12-team affair, opens at New York's Madison Square Garden with two of four first-round games: St. John's of New York (16-6) vs. Butler (16-9) and St. Joseph's of Philadelphia (17-8) vs. St. Peter's of New Jersey (20-3).

The NCAA Small College Tournament reaches the semifinal stage at Evansville, Ind., with defending champion Wheaton of Illinois playing South Dakota (the club it bounced in the semis a year ago), and host Evansville meeting St. Michaels of Vermont.

The NAIA Tournament at Kansas City heads into the quarterfinals with these pairing: Tennessee State vs. East Texas, Western Illinois vs. Youngstown (Ohio), Coe (Iowa) vs. Texas Southern, and West Virginia Wesleyan vs. Georgetown (Ky.).

And the NCAA Tournament for the big schools, under way since Monday, regroups for regionals at Charlotte, N.C.; Lexington, Ky.; Lawrence, Kan.; and San Francisco starting Friday after Idaho State and Seattle won the last of the first-round games.

Seattle, with All America Elgin Baylor scoring 26 points and dabbling in playmaking too, crushed Wyoming's Skyline Conference champions 88-51 in the second game of a double-header at Berkeley, Calif. Idaho State's Rocky Mountain champions downed the Border champs, Arizona State of Tempe, 72-68, in the first game. The winners advance to the Far West NCAA regional at San Francisco Friday night.

Baylor's 26 points dipped his season average to 33.3 compared with 34.5 for Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, the national leader.

Friday, Seattle plays San Francisco and Idaho State faces California.

All set for Friday's other big NCAA games are Maryland vs. Temple and Manhattan vs. Dartmouth at Charlotte, Kentucky vs. Miami of Ohio and Notre Dame vs. Indiana at Lexington, Ky., and Oklahoma State vs. Arkansas and (the one everybody's waiting' to see) Cincinnati vs. Kansas State at Lawrence, Kan.

Butler, competing in its first NIT, won 11 of its last 13 games.

The St. John's-Butler winner will play fourth-seeded Utah Saturday afternoon after Niagara meets Xavier of Ohio in a first round game.

Top-seeded Dayton and second-seeded Bradley will not see action until next Tuesday night. Bradley's defending champions will battle the Niagara-Xavier winner and Dayton goes against the Fordham-St. Francis survivor of Saturday night.

Semifinal NIT games will be played Thursday night, March 20 and the championship game, Saturday afternoon, March 22.

Unseeded 5s Advance in NAIA Tourney

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Three unseeded and generally overlooked entries battled their way into tonight's quarterfinal round of the National Intercollegiate (NAIA) basketball tournament.

The Georgetown (Ky.) College Tigers, who upset Pacific Lutheran 92-91 in overtime Wednesday night in the best game of the tournament thus far, Coe College of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Texas Southern of Houston, are the surprise teams.

Either Coe or Texas Southern will have to go tonight. They meet in the opening game.

Georgetown will have a rugged foe in 5th-seeded West Virginia Wesleyan in the final game.

The top-seeded Western Illinois Leathernecks, who had all sorts of trouble outlasting Pasadena (Calif.) College, 83-80, go up against Youngstown (Ohio) University in the second game. Youngstown, seeded No. 8, overpowered Platteville (Wis.) Teachers, 74-63, in the second round.

Defending champion Tennessee State of Nashville, seeded No. 3, and East Texas State of Commerce, seeded No. 7, meet in tonight's third game.

Texas Southern gained the quarterfinals by beating Drury College of Springfield, Mo., 91-61 and Coe ran away from Western Montana 103-69.

Tennessee State's blistering speed burned up Anderson (Ind.) College 77-56. Methodical East Texas started slow and finished fast to oust Northern State of Aberdeen, S. D., 63-57.

Venturi Favored In Pensacola Open

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — A golf pro who never before had seen the course was the favorite as play started in the $15,000 Pensacola Open tournament today.

He is Ken Venturi, the hottest player on the winter tournament circuit with three victories and top 1958 earnings. The young San Francisco star has won five titles and about $40,000 since he became a professional 15 months ago.

The 26-year-old pro lost a sudden-death playoff Wednesday to Bill Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., in the New Orleans Open.

92 3-Year-Olds Vie For Triple Crown

LOUISVILLE (AP)—It has been 10 years since the last triple crown winner, Citation, romped off with the Kentucky Derby - Preakness Belmont to complete one of sports most elusive grand slams.

With nominations in for the 1958 triple, a check today disclosed that 92 of the current 3-year-old crop have been named for all three of the classics beginning with the $125,000-added derby at Churchill Downs here May 3.

NCAA Cage Play Nears Semifinals

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — A poised, well-balanced Wheaton College team takes on dangerous South Dakota, and host Evansville meets sharp-shooting St. Michael's in tonight's semifinals of the NCAA college basketball tourney.

Wheaton's defending champions moved through Wednesday's quarterfinal opener of the meet in Roberts Memorial Stadium with an 81-64 decision over Chapman of Orange, Calif., smallest school in the field with a 300 enrollment.

The lead switched 16 times in the first half before Wheaton broke the game open with a 14 point surge in the first 7 minutes after intermission. From then on, it was a rout as the Crusaders chalked their 22nd straight victory.

South Dakota, swinging along on an 18-game winning skein, will be seeking a measure of revenge from the Illinois team. Wheaton knocked the Coyotes out of the semifinals last year, 90-80.

In Wednesday's second game, South Dakota snapped a tie in the last four minutes with seven free throws to defeat Southwest Missouri State 63-58.

Evansville College's Aces surged in the final 10 minutes to trim American University of Washington, D. C., 82-72.

New Gallia County Lake Draws Nearer To Building Time

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Division of Wildlife says Tycoon Lake, a proposed 140-acre body of water in Gallia County, is a step nearer reality.

B. K. Jones, chairman of the wildlife council, reports the council has approved an option on the last parcel of land at the site involving a total of 675 acres. "This would leave 535 acres of land around the lake for public hunting," he said.

The last parcel, 16 acres, cost the division $2,500. Investment in the project thus far is about $76,000 in land acquisition alone.

Construction of the dam to impound the lake is expected to begin this year. Tycoon Lake will be situated about 11 miles north of Gallipolis, nestled in the southern Ohio hills.

In other land purchase approvals, the council approved an option on 98 acres in Trumbull County, site of the Grand River Wildlife Area, and 51 acres in Jackson County for the Cooper Hollow Wildlife Area.

More Teams Advance in Cage Playoff

COLUMBUS (AP)—Columbus East and Cuyahoga Falls sit back tonight and wait to see what high school teams they meet in the regional basketball finals at Berea and Kent.

Columbus East, paced by Mel Nowell's 22 points, edged Cleveland Cathedral Latin out of the state tournament Wednesday night 61-59. The Tigers, now 18-5, will meet the winner of tonight's Cleveland East Tech-Elyria battle Saturday for the right to advance to the state finals.

Latin last year was the No. 1 team in the Associated Press' final high school poll. They went to the finals but were downed by Kent Roosevelt 62-54.

Columbus East also isn't a newcomer to the select few. East won the state crown in 1951.

The other team to move one step closer to the finals next week was Cuyahoga Falls, with a 59-55 victory over Wooster.

Cuyahoga Falls will face the winner of tonight's Zanesville-Akron St. Vincent game in the regional finals at Kent Saturday.

Zanesville, ranked No. 3 behind Middletown and Cleveland East Tech, has won the state title twice, in 1926 and 1955.

Class A regional action gets underway tonight in Athens where Centralia (19-5) runs into Maysville (24-1).

Laurelville AC Slates Wrestling

The Laurelville Athletic Club will present professional wrestling Friday night at the Laurelville High School gym. The first match starts at 8:15 p.m.

A six-man battle royal will be the main event.

Time Running Out On Delany's Effort

CHICAGO (AP)—Time appears to be running out on Ron Delany's bid for an indoor mile record.

For the Villanova miler, Friday's Chicago Daily News relays, at the International Amphitheatre is the next to last chance to break the indoor record of 4:03.6 set by Denmark's Gunnar Neilsen.

Next week, the indoor track season winds up at Cleveland.

Karen O'Donnell Wins First Prize in Seal Poster Test

Miss Karne O'Donnell, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Donnell, 1016 Lynwood Ave., was the first prize winner in the Easter Art Poster Contest sponsored by the Pickaway County Society for Crippled Children.

The poster theme was based upon the Children's Day Easter Lily Parade which will be held March 29 through downtown Circleville. Judges of the contest were Miss Ruth Montelius and the Rev. Charles Reed.

Second prize winner was Miss Patricia Hines, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hines, 129 Park St. Miss Mona Sue Davis, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Forest, 526 E. Union St. won third prize. Writer Chides TV Sponsors

'Need' for Violence Labeled as Wrong

NEW YORK (AP) — "Television sponsors and agencies these days are not keen on a script that has no threat, no murder, violence, sex or guns," says Sumner Locke Elliott. "They think that these things are paying off now."

Elliott, who has written about 50 hour-length television dramas, believes that such sponsors and agencies are wrong.

"They're putting themselves up a blind alley," he said the other day. "They've fallen for the self-created myth that they know what the public wants. Actually, what the public wants is good plays."

A few weeks ago Studio One (CBS-TV) presented Elliott's most recent work, "Laughing Willow," a comedy drama set in Washington, D.C., that did not contain the elements which Elliott says TV sponsors desire in scripts. The result, he said, was an unusually high audience rating and many favorable reviews.

Like many well-known television writers, Elliott prefers to live in New York instead of following the exodus of TV drama shows to Hollywood. He writes here and flies to the West Coast only to see a drama through production.

Elliott believes that the "star system" characterizing West Coast TV productions, with a "big name" sought for even a small part, "is defeating its own purpose because shows can't afford the most expensive stars anyway."

As a result, he says, most of the "big name" stars who appear in West Coast dramas are not more widely known than the stars of dramas originating in New York.

"But 'they'—whoever 'they' are—insist on the importance of a 'name' for even small parts."

U. S. Scientists Declare Sputnik II Is Nearing Death

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—American scientists say the Soviet Union's dog-carrying Sputnik II satellite is losing altitude at the rate of five miles a day and is expected to plunge to a fiery end about April 14.

Scientists at the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said Wednesday night the satellite and its now dead dog is swooping at present to within 120 miles of the earth with its high point at 550 miles.

That's about half the altitude it achieved when it was launched Nov. 3.

With its shorter course, the satellite is circling the globe in just over 95 minutes, compared with 103.6 minutes after launching.

They estimated from previous experience that when the period drops to 88 minutes per trip, it will start to heat up in the atmosphere.

Scientists estimate the size of Sputnik II as possibly 35 feet long and 5 feet in diameter.

Russia disclosed it weighed 1,140 pounds, but never divulged its size.

Sputnik I, launched Oct. 4, plunged to its death early in January.

World War 1 GIs Scheduled to Get Additional Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Veterans Administration will pay a special dividend of $32 million in April and May to about 325,000 holders of World War I government insurance. That averages nearly $100 per policyholder.

Administrator Sumner G. Whittier, announcing the payment today, said the special dividend is in addition to the regular annual dividend for 5,300,000 World War I and World War II holders of GI insurance.

The regular dividend of $262 million is being paid out at the rate of $22 million a month.

Without referring to it as an antirecession measure, Whittier noted that addition of the special dividend between mid-April and mid-May means all dividends for the period would total $54 million.

A spokesman said the special dividend actually was approved some time ago by the former administrator, Harvey V. Higley, but it took time to set up machinery for the payments.

Whittier said the special dividend will go to holders of permanent-plan U. S. Government Life Insurance. He said about 44,000 USGLI policies will be excluded. Those omitted include 19,000 five-year term policies, 8,000 extended-term policies and 17,000 other policies for which permanent and total disability payments are being deducted.

Foundry Union Studies Wage Increase Offer

CINCINNATI (AP) — A management offer of a pay increase was being considered today by a committee of Molders and Foundry Workers' Union, which has been on strike in 22 plants in southwestern Ohio since Feb. 22.

A-BOMB CRATER — Here is a view of the crater 30 feet wide and 35 feet deep which was dug by the accidentally-dropped atom bomb five miles east of Florence, S. C. It exploded conventionally, but safety devices prevented an atomic blast.

5 U. S. Officers Are Doing Fine In Space Chamber

DAYTON (AP)—Five Air Force officers trying to find out if they can work efficiently under conditions which might give a sardine claustrophobia are "doing fine."

The five volunteers are manning an imaginary space ship orbiting at 18,000 miles an hour, 140,000 miles above the earth. They completed the first 24 hours of their five-day ordeal at 9 a. m. today.

They empleted their first "orbit" at 3:30 a. m. when they passed over Miami, Fla., on their imaginary flight.

Their "space ship" is a mock B36 bomber cabin, 17 feet long, 7 feet wide and 6 feet high.

A spokesman for the Wright Air Development Center at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base where the endurance test is being conducted said all five men "are in fine shape, cheerful and have successfully completed all assigned problems and tasks during the first 24 hours."

Van Wert Flier On A-Bomb Plane

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — Capt. Charles S. Woodruff, 35, of Van Wert, Ohio, has been identified as the second pilot of the B47 jet bomber that accidentally dropped an unarmed atomic bomb near Florence, S. C.

Also on the plane were Capt. Earl E. Koehler, about 36, of Mount Carmel, Ill., the aircraft commander and first pilot, and Capt. Bruce M. Kulka, 29, of New York City, the navigator.

Woodruff entered the Air service in 1942, completed pilot training in 1944 and flew 19 combat missions during World War II. He holds the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters. He is married and the father of three children.

U. S. Air Force Sends Apologies For Bomb Mishap

FLORENCE, S. C. (AP)—The Air Force has apologized to this tobaccoland community of 30,000 for the accidental dropping of an unarmed atomic bomb.

The atomic portion of the bomb did not go off, but its TNT trigger exploded, blowing up a house and digging a crater 40 feet wide.

In Washington, Secretary of Defense McElroy confirmed that the area was uncontaminated by radioactivity, and Department of Defense attorneys said householders who suffered minor injury or damage probably can collect damage claims from the Air Force within a short time.

But those submitting claims for more than $1,000 probably will have to wait six months for Congress to approve payments.

Air Force crews were at work removing scars left by the explosion when the bomb accidentally fell from a B47.

Mayor David McLeod at City Hall got an apology for the incident from Maj. Gen. Charles B. Dougher of Hunter AFB, Ga., the bomber's base.

High-ranking officers and claims personnel toured the two-mile-square area surrounding the impact point near the shattered Walter Gregg house five miles east of here. Gregg, his wife, their three children and a niece were injured, none seriously.

Air Force authorities explained the bomb did not set off a nuclear explosion because it lacked the complete triggering device.

Zanesville Slayer Wins New Trial

COLUMBUS (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday cleared the way for a new trial for Harry Bundy, 39, convicted of first degree murder in the slaying of Amodio and Paul Cain during a robbery at the County Line Market in Uniontown, Nov. 23, 1956.

Appellate court returned the case to common pleas court for a new trial and the state appealed from that decision. The Supreme Court refused to consider the state's appeal.

Bundy, of Zanesville, was found guilty without recommendation of mercy. His execution was originally set for Nov. 8, but it was postponed pending litigation.

Collegian Admits Burglary Series

COLUMBUS (AP)—Franklin County Sheriff Stacy Hall said Wednesday a former Wittenberg College student has admitted seven burglaries, including a $50,000 jewel theft in Upper Arlington.

Stacy identified the man as James Allen Alyn, 26, of Columbus. The sheriff said Alyn would "case" the homes of well-to-do persons by posing as a salesman of water softening equipment.

For the last two years Alyn has been driving a stolen auto on which title papers had been forged.

Model Airship Found in Tree

Charles Walters, Circleville Postmaster, yesterday was the recipient of a motor equipped model airplane, via the airways.

Upon returning home yesterday afternoon Walters' son told him that a model airplane had flown into a tree in their yard on Route 3, Circleville. Walters said the model plane had flown from out of nowhere into a limb and fell to the ground.

Walters said that he will return the plane to the owner if it can be identified properly.

One Girl-Power Cycle Able To Halt Postman

BROCKTON, Mass. (AP) — Letter carriers defy rain, snow, dark of night and even dogs, but a 4-year-old girl on a tricycle stopped a carrier.

The one girl-power tricycle crashed into Samuel Siciliano, 40, as he made his rounds.

Siciliano was upended and required hospital treatment for a cut over his left eye.

The little girl—unidentified—escaped uninjured.

Cadillac

It's an Easy Step from Dreaming to Driving!

Here he is at last—just a few miles out on his maiden journey—with his hands on the wheel and his head in the clouds. It's his!

And yet, truth to tell, he does have one regret. For he knows that he needn't have waited this long, had he but realized what an easy step it is from dreaming of a Cadillac to driving in a Cadillac.

Like a great many motorists, for instance, he was not aware that a Cadillac—in view of its obvious virtues—could be so modest in price.

Nor did he appreciate, until the facts were presented, how economical a Cadillac is to maintain or how wonderfully it holds its value over the years.

And little did he suspect how accommodating his dealer would be in welcoming him to membership in the great and distinguished family of Cadillac owners.

So, if you have your heart set on a Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to investigate this happy set of circumstances.

In fact, why not visit your dealer today? He will be happy to help you select your favorite Cadillac model with your favorite Fleetwood interior—be it the luxurious Sixty-Two Coupe or the magnificent Eldorado Brougham.

World War 1 Gls Scheduled to Get Additional Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Veterans Administration will pay a special dividend of $32 million in April and May to about 325,000 holders of World War I government insurance. That averages nearly $100 per policyholder.

Administrator Sumner G. Whittier, announcing the payment today, said the special dividend is in addition to the regular annual dividend for 5,300,000 World War I and World War II holders of GI insurance.

The regular dividend of $262 million is being paid out at the rate of $22 million a month.

Without referring to it as an antirecession measure, Whittier noted that addition of the special dividend between mid-April and mid-May means all dividends for the period would total $54 million.

A spokesman said the special dividend actually was approved some time ago by the former administrator, Harvey V. Higley, but it took time to set up machinery for the payments.

Whittier said the special dividend will go to holders of permanent-plan U. S. Government Life Insurance. He said about 44,000 USGLI policies will be excluded. Those omitted include 19,000 five-year term policies, 8,000 extended-term policies and 17,000 other policies for which permanent and total disability payments are being deducted.

A-BOMB CRATER — Here is a view of the crater 30 feet wide and 35 feet deep which was dug by the accidentally-dropped atom bomb five miles east of Florence, S. C. It exploded conventionally, but safety devices prevented an atomic blast.

5 U. S. Officers Are Doing Fine In Space Chamber

DAYTON (AP)—Five Air Force officers trying to find out if they can work efficiently under conditions which might give a sardine claustrophobia are "doing fine."

The five volunteers are manning an imaginary space ship orbiting at 18,000 miles an hour, 140,000 miles above the earth. They completed the first 24 hours of their five-day ordeal at 9 a. m. today.

They empleted their first "orbit" at 3:30 a. m. when they passed over Miami, Fla., on their imaginary flight.

Their "space ship" is a mock B36 bomber cabin, 17 feet long, 7 feet wide and 6 feet high.

A spokesman for the Wright Air Development Center at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base where the endurance test is being conducted said all five men "are in fine shape, cheerful and have successfully completed all assigned problems and tasks during the first 24 hours."

Van Wert Flier On A-Bomb Plane

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — Capt. Charles S. Woodruff, 35, of Van Wert, Ohio, has been identified as the second pilot of the B47 jet bomber that accidentally dropped an unarmed atomic bomb near Florence, S. C.

Also on the plane were Capt. Earl E. Koehler, about 36, of Mount Carmel, Ill., the aircraft commander and first pilot, and Capt. Bruce M. Kulka, 29, of New York City, the navigator.

Woodruff entered the Air service in 1942, completed pilot training in 1944 and flew 19 combat missions during World War II. He holds the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters. He is married and the father of three children.

U. S. Air Force Sends Apologies For Bomb Mishap

FLORENCE, S. C. (AP)—The Air Force has apologized to this tobaccoland community of 30,000 for the accidental dropping of an unarmed atomic bomb.

The atomic portion of the bomb did not go off, but its TNT trigger exploded, blowing up a house and digging a crater 40 feet wide.

In Washington, Secretary of Defense McElroy confirmed that the area was uncontaminated by radioactivity, and Department of Defense attorneys said householders who suffered minor injury or damage probably can collect damage claims from the Air Force within a short time.

But those submitting claims for more than $1,000 probably will have to wait six months for Congress to approve payments.

Air Force crews were at work removing scars left by the explosion when the bomb accidentally fell from a B47.

Mayor David McLeod at City Hall got an apology for the incident from Maj. Gen. Charles B. Dougher of Hunter AFB, Ga., the bomber's base.

High-ranking officers and claims personnel toured the two-mile-square area surrounding the impact point near the shattered Walter Gregg house five miles east of here. Gregg, his wife, their three children and a niece were injured, none seriously.

Air Force authorities explained the bomb did not set off a nuclear explosion because it lacked the complete triggering device.

Zanesville Slayer Wins New Trial

COLUMBUS (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday cleared the way for a new trial for Harry Bundy, 39, convicted of first degree murder in the slaying of Amodio and Paul Cain during a robbery at the County Line Market in Uniontown, Nov. 23, 1956.

Appellate court returned the case to common pleas court for a new trial and the state appealed from that decision. The Supreme Court refused to consider the state's appeal.

Bundy, of Zanesville, was found guilty without recommendation of mercy. His execution was originally set for Nov. 8, but it was postponed pending litigation.

Collegian Admits Burglary Series

COLUMBUS (AP)—Franklin County Sheriff Stacy Hall said Wednesday a former Wittenberg College student has admitted seven burglaries, including a $50,000 jewel theft in Upper Arlington.

Stacy identified the man as James Allen Alyn, 26, of Columbus. The sheriff said Alyn would "case" the homes of well-to-do persons by posing as a salesman of water softening equipment.

For the last two years Alyn has been driving a stolen auto on which title papers had been forged.

Walters said that he will return the plane to the owner if it can be identified properly.

One Girl-Power Cycle Able To Halt Postman

BROCKTON, Mass. (AP) — Letter carriers defy rain, snow, dark of night and even dogs, but a 4-year-old girl on a tricycle stopped a carrier.

The one girl-power tricycle crashed into Samuel Sicilliano, 40, as he made his rounds.

Sicilliano was upended and required hospital treatment for a cut over his left eye.

The little girl—unidentified—escaped uninjured.

Writer Chides TV Sponsors

'Need' for Violence Labeled as Wrong

NEW YORK (AP) — "Television sponsors and agencies these days are not keen on a script that has no threat, no murder, violence, sex or guns," says Sumner Locke Elliott. "They think that these things are paying off now."

Elliott, who has written about 50 hour-length television dramas, believes that such sponsors and agencies are wrong.

"They're putting themselves up a blind alley," he said the other day. "They've fallen for the self-created myth that they know what the public wants. Actually, what the public wants is good plays."

A few weeks ago Studio One (CBS-TV) presented Elliott's most recent work, "Laughing Willow," a comedy drama set in Washington, D.C., that did not contain the elements which Elliott says TV sponsors desire in scripts. The result, he said, was an unusually high audience rating and many favorable reviews.

Like many well-known television writers, Elliott prefers to live in New York instead of following the exodus of TV drama shows to Hollywood. He writes here and flies to the West Coast only to see a drama through production.

Elliott believes that the "star system" characterizing West Coast TV productions, with a "big name" sought for even a small part, "is defeating its own purpose because shows can't afford the most expensive stars anyway."

As a result, he says, most of the "big name" stars who appear in West Coast dramas are not more widely known than the stars of dramas originating in New York.

"But 'they'—whoever 'they' are—insist on the importance of a 'name' for even small parts."

U. S. Scientists Declare Sputnik II Is Nearing Death

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—American scientists say the Soviet Union's dog-carrying Sputnik II satellite is losing altitude at the rate of five miles a day and is expected to plunge to a fiery end about April 14.

Scientists at the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said Wednesday night the satellite and its now dead dog is swooping at present to within 120 miles of the earth with its high point at 550 miles.

That's about half the altitude it achieved when it was launched Nov. 3.

With its shorter course, the satellite is circling the globe in just over 95 minutes, compared with 103.6 minutes after launching.

They estimated from previous experience that when the period drops to 88 minutes per trip, it will start to heat up in the atmosphere.

Scientists estimate the size of Sputnik II as possibly 35 feet long and 5 feet in diameter.

Russia disclosed it weighed 1,140 pounds, but never divulged its size.

Sputnik I, launched Oct. 4, plunged to its death early in January.

And yet, truth to tell, he does have one regret. For he knows that he needn't have waited this long, had he but realized what an easy step it is from dreaming of a Cadillac to driving in a Cadillac.

Like a great many motorists, for instance, he was not aware that a Cadillac—in view of its obvious virtues—could be so modest in price.

Nor did he appreciate, until the facts were presented, how economical a Cadillac is to maintain or how wonderfully it holds its value over the years.

And little did he suspect how accommodating his dealer would be in welcoming him to membership in the great and distinguished family of Cadillac owners.

So, if you have your heart set on a Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to investigate this happy set of circumstances.

In fact, why not visit your dealer today? He will be happy to help you select your favorite Cadillac model with your favorite Fleetwood interior—be it the luxurious Sixty-Two Coupe or the magnificent Eldorado Brougham.
